The American Ambassador to the Colombian Minister of Foreign Affairs

EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

No. 156

Bogotá, January 8, 1959

Excellency:

I have the honor to refer to the Cooperative Program between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Colombia for the establishment and operation of a rawinsonde observation station at San Andrés Island, Colombia. This cooperative program was effected by an exchange of notes at Bogotá and entered into force on July 6, 1956<sup>2</sup>.

The purpose of such a program was to provide essential meteorological information for research into the development, structure and movement of hurricanes for the preparation of hurricane warnings, and to provide essential information to international aviation.

In view of the mutual benefit which it is anticipated would result, the United States Government wishes to invite the Government of Colombia to join with it in continuing the cooperative meteorological observation program in accordance with the following principles:

1. Cooperating Agencies

The cooperating agencies shall be (1) for the Government of the United States of America, the Weather Bureau, Department of Commerce, hereinafter referred to as the United States Cooperating Agency and (2) for the Government of Colombia, the Empresa Colombiana de Aerodromos, hereinafter referred to as the Colombian Cooperating Agency.

&lt;sup>1</sup> Came into force on 1 July 1959, in accordance with the provisions of the said notes.

2. General Purposes

The general purposes of the present agreement shall be as follows:

- (a) To provide for the continuation of the rawinsonde observation station on San Andrés Island, and for the establishment, operation and maintenance of a rawinsonde observation station at Bogotá, the exact location to be selected by mutual arrangement between the two Cooperating Agencies, for securing reports of regularly scheduled and special rawinsonde observations; and
- (b) to provide for the daily exchange of rawinsonde observation reports between the two cooperating agencies for the use of the respective countries, in addition to other exchanges previously established.

3. Title to Property

For the duration of the project title to all equipment purchased with funds supplied by the United States Cooperating Agency shall remain vested in that Agency, and title to all equipment supplied by the Colombian Cooperating Agency shall remain vested in that Agency. In addition, title to all real estate and/or buildings used in the cooperative program, including buildings constructed by the United States Cooperating Agency at San Andrés shall be vested in the Colombian Cooperating Agency.

4. Expenditures

All expenditures incurred by the United States Cooperating Agency shall be paid directly by the Government of the United States of America, and all expenditures incident to the obligations assumed by the Colombian Cooperating Agency shall be paid by the Government of Colombia.

5. Exemption from Duties and Taxes

All equipment and supplies imported into the Republic of Colombia by the United States Cooperating Agency for use in the cooperative program shall be admitted free of customs and import duties. The resident technician at San Andrés and other employees of the Government of the United States, whose services may be provided by the United States Cooperating Agency for the purpose of the present agreement, shall be exempt from all Colombian income taxes and social security taxes. Such employees shall also be exempt from the payment of customs and import duties on one automobile, household goods and personal effects, equipment and supplies imported into the Republic of Colombia for their own use or that of the members of their immediate families.

6. Term

The agreement shall remain in effect through June 30, 1962, and may be continued in force for additional periods by written agreement to that effect by the two Governments, but either Government may terminate the present agreement by giving to the other Government notice in writing sixty days in advance. Participation on the part of either Government in the project contemplated by the present agreement shall be subject to the availability of funds appropriated by the legislative bodies of the respective Governments.

If the above proposal meets with the approval of the Government of Colombia, I would appreciate receiving Your Excellency's reply to that effect as soon as possible in order that the technical details may be arranged by officials of the two Cooperating Agencies, and a Memorandum of Arrangement embodying those technical details be signed. I suggest that this note and your reply thereto accepting the aforementioned principles be considered as constituting an agreement between our two Governments concerning this matter, such agreement to come into effect on July 1, 1959. It is understood that the Memorandum of Arrangement may be amended at any time by concurrence of the two Cooperating Agencies.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest and most distinguished consideration.
