Excellency :

I have the honor to refer to recent conversations between representatives of our two Governments concerning the purchase of military equipment, materials, and services from the Government of the United States by the Government of the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia, as a result of which the following understandings have been reached :

1. The Government of the United States, subject to applicable United States laws and regulations, shall sell to the Government of the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia such equipment, materials, and services as may be requested by the Government of the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia and approved by the Government of the United States.

2. The Government of the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia requires and shall use equipment, materials, and services purchased from the Government of the United States hereunder solely to maintain the internal security or legitimate self-defense of the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia, and the Government of the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia shall not undertake any act of aggression against any other state.

3. The Government of the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia shall not relinquish title to or possession of equipment, materials or services purchased from the Government of the United States hereunder without the prior consent of the Government of the United States.

4. The Government of the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia shall maintain the security of equipment, materials, or services purchased from the Government of the United States hereunder.

¹ Came into force on 25 August 1959 by the exchange of the said notes.

5. The Government of the United States retains the right to terminate any transaction prior to the delivery of any equipment or materials or the rendering of any service to the Government of the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia hereunder.
