I

The American Ambassador to the Turkish Minister of Foreign Affairs

No. 2422

Ankara, May 5, 1959

Excellency :

I have the honor to refer to the decisions taken at the North Atlantic Treaty² Heads of Government meeting in December 1957 and to propose the following Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Turkey for cooperation on the use of Atomic Energy for Mutual Defense purposes :

The Government of the United States of America and the Government of Turkey,

Considering that they have concluded a mutual defense assistance agreement³ pursuant to which each Government will make available to the other equipment, materials, services, or the military assistance in accordance with such terms and conditions as may be agreed;

Considering that their mutual security and defense require that they be prepared to meet the contingencies of atomic warfare;

Considering that they are participating together in an international arrangement pursuant to which they are making substantial and material contributions to their mutual defense and security;

Recognizing that their common defense and security will be advanced by the exchange of information concerning atomic energy and by the transfer of certain types of equipment;

Believing that such exchange and transfer can be undertaken without risk to the defense and security of either country; and

Taking into consideration the United States Atomic Energy Act of 1954 as amended, and all applicable statutes of Turkey, which were enacted or prepared with these purposes in mind,

Have agreed as follows :

² United Nations, Treaty Series, Vol. 34, p. 243; Vol. 126, p. 350, and Vol. 243, p. 308.

³ United Nations, Treaty Series, Vol. 7, p. 299. See also United Nations, Treaty Series, Vol. 179, p. 121.

Article I

GENERAL PROVISION

While the United States and Turkey are participating in an international arrangement for their mutual defense and security and making substantial and material contributions thereto, each Party will communicate to and exchange with the other Party information and transfer nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons systems involving restricted data to the other Party in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, provided that the communicating or transferring Party determines that such cooperation will promote and will not constitute an unreasonable risk to its defense and security.

Article II

EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

Each Party will communicate to or exchange with the other Party such classified information as is jointly determined to be necessary to :

- A. the development of defense plans;
- B. the training of personnel in the employment of and defense against atomic weapons and other military applications of atomic energy;
- C. the evaluation of the capabilities of potential enemies in the employment of atomic weapons and other military applications of atomic energy; and
- D. the development of delivery systems compatible with the atomic weapons which they carry.

Article III

TRANSFER OF NONNUCLEAR PARTS OF ATOMIC WEAPONS SYSTEMS

The Government of the United States will transfer to the Government of Turkey, subject to terms and conditions to be agreed, nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons systems involving Restricted Data as such parts are jointly determined to be necessary for the purpose of improving Turkish state of training and operational readiness.

Article IV

- A. Cooperation under this Agreement will be carried out by each of the Parties in accordance with its applicable laws.
- B. Under this Agreement there will be no transfer by either Party of atomic weapons, nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons, or special nuclear materials.
- C. The information communicated or exchanged, or nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons systems transferred, by either Party pursuant to this Agreement shall be used by the recipient Party exclusively for the preparation or implementation of defense plans in the mutual interests of the two countries.

Article V

GUARANTEES

A. Classified information and nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons systems communicated or transferred pursuant to this Agreement shall be accorded full security protection under applicable security arrangements between the Parties and applicable national legislation and regulations of the Parties. In no case shall either Party maintain security standards for safeguarding classified information, and nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons systems, made available pursuant to this Agreement less restrictive than those set forth in the applicable security arrangements in effect on the date this Agreement comes into force.

B. Classified information communicated or exchanged pursuant to this Agreement will be made available through channels existing or hereafter agreed for the communication or exchange of such information between the Parties.

C. Classified information, communicated or exchanged, and any nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons systems transferred pursuant to this Agreement shall not be communicated, exchanged or transferred by the recipient Party or persons under its jurisdiction to any unauthorized persons or, except as provided in Article VI of this Agreement, beyond the jurisdiction of that Party. Each Party may stipulate the degree to which any of the information and nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons systems communicated, exchanged or transferred by it or persons under its jurisdiction pursuant to this Agreement may be disseminated or distributed; may specify the categories of persons who may have access to such information or nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons systems; and may impose such other restrictions on the dissemination or distribution of such information or nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons systems as it deems necessary.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted or operate as a bar or restriction to consultation or cooperation in any field of defense by either Party with other nations or international organizations. Neither Party, however, shall so communicate classified information or transfer or permit access to or use of nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons systems made available by the other Party pursuant to this Agreement unless :

A. It is notified by the originating Party that all appropriate provisions and requirements of the originating Party's applicable laws, including authorization by competent bodies of the originating Party, have been complied with which would be necessary to authorize the originating Party directly so to communicate to, transfer to, permit access to or use by such other nation or international organization; and further that the originating Party authorizes the recipient Party so to communicate to, transfer to, permit access to or use by such other nation or international organization; or

B. The originating Party has informed the recipient Party that the originating Party has so communicated to, transferred to, permitted access to or use by such other nation or international organization.
