No. 5614. AGREEMENT<sup>1</sup> BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE GOVERNMENT OF NEW ZEALAND RELATING TO HUMAN RIGHTS SEMINAR TO BE HELD IN WELLINGTON. SIGNED AT NEW YORK, ON 2 FEBRUARY 1961

---

The United Nations and the Government of New Zealand (hereinafter called "the Government"), desiring to give effect to the provisions of General Assembly Resolution 926 (X)<sup>2</sup> concerning the programme of advisory services in human rights, have agreed as follows :

Article I

SEMINAR ON THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS
IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

1. A United Nations seminar on the protection of human rights in the administration of criminal justice will be held in Wellington, New Zealand.
2. The duration of the seminar shall be from 6 to 20 February 1961 inclusive.
3. The purpose of the seminar shall be to provide an opportunity for exchange of experience and information in the field of the administration of criminal justice.

Article II

PARTICIPATION IN THE SEMINAR

Participation in the seminar shall be open to :

a) National participants and alternates nominated by the Governments of countries and territories within the geographic scope of the Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East, with the addition of Australia and New Zealand. A chairman shall be elected by the national participants from among themselves to preside at the seminar. Vice-chairmen and rapporteurs shall also be elected as appropriate in the same manner.

b) Observers from other States members of the United Nations.

c) Observers from any specialized agencies of the United Nations which may be invited by the United Nations to send observers.

d) Observers from non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council which may be invited by the United Nations to send observers.

e) Members of the United Nations Secretariat.

Article III

SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED BY THE UNITED NATIONS

1. The United Nations shall provide the following services in connexion with the seminar :

a) The services of the members of the United Nations Secretariat mentioned in Article II (e) above.

b) The preparation of technical working papers which will be used as the basis for discussions at the seminar.

c) The translation of the technical working papers into French if necessary.

d) The preparation, reproduction and distribution of the final report of the seminar.

2. The United Nations shall also defray the following costs in connexion with the seminar :

a) The travel expenses and subsistence allowances of not more than one participant from each of the participating countries and territories (see Article II (a) above), with the exception of the host country.

b) The cost of the services of simultaneous interpreters for interpretation into and from English and French.

Article IV

CO-OPERATION OF THE GOVERNMENT IN THE SEMINAR

1. The Government shall act as host to the seminar.

2. The Government shall nominate officials as liaison officer and assistant liaison officers between the United Nations and the Government, who shall be responsible for making the necessary arrangements concerning the contributions of the Government described in paragraph 3 below.

3. The Government shall provide and defray the costs of :

a) Adequately furnished and equipped conference premises and the maintenance of the said premises during the seminar.

b) Office accommodation for the officers and staff of the seminar, the liaison officer and the local personnel mentioned below.

c) Simultaneous interpretation equipment and the services of a technician to operate and maintain the equipment.

d) The services of reporters for the purpose of making a verbatim record of meetings of the seminar.

e) The services of a translator to make a provisional translation of the final report into French.

f) An information officer to assist in liaison with local press, radio and film media.

g) The local administrative personnel required for the proper conduct of the seminar, including reproduction and distribution of technical papers and other seminar documents, including a documents officer, information-reception clerks, secretary-stenographers, copy-typists, mimeograph operators, collators, messengers and security personnel.

h) Amplification equipment for one conference room.

i) Postal, telegraph and telephone facilities for official work in connexion with the seminar; office supplies and equipment needed for the reproduction of technical papers and other documents required for the proper conduct of the seminar.

Article V

1. The Government, insofar as it is not already bound to do so, shall apply to the United Nations and its specialized agencies, their property, funds and assets provided by them for the seminar, envisaged in this Agreement, and to all personnel assigned by them to the said Conference as specified in Article II (b) of this Agreement, the provisions of the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations<sup>1</sup>
