I

The American Ambassador to the Yugoslav Assistant Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs

No. 482

Belgrade, January 19, 1961

Excellency :

I have the honor to refer to the Agreement between our two Governments effected by an exchange of notes, signed at Belgrade on October 22, 1959,² and to recent conversations between representatives of our two Governments relating to the programs of special economic and technical assistance which may be made available to your Government during United States fiscal year 1961, and, in particular, to that portion, not to exceed $1.0 million, of the special economic assistance program which may be made available for the import of commodities, including demonstration and research equipment, designed to support technical assistance projects.

It is understood that, if such commodities are made available to your Government, they will be used in connection with, and for the purpose of, such technical assistance projects, and that upon completion of such projects, any such unused commodities will be used for substantially similar purposes. Consequently, it is further understood that no proceeds will accrue to your Government from the import or sale of such commodities.

It is also understood that the terms and conditions of the Economic Cooperation Agreement between the United States of America and the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia signed on January 8, 1952, as amended,³ and the customary requirements and procedures, shall be applicable to the furnishing of the special economic assistance mentioned above, except that, in view of the special purpose to be served by such assistance, Article III of the Economic Cooperation Agreement, which relates to the deposit of dinars in the special dinar account, shall not be applicable in respect of such assistance.

¹ Came into force on 19 January 1961 by the exchange of the said notes.

² United Nations, Treaty Series, Vol. 360, p. 259.

³ United Nations, Treaty Series, Vol. 152, p. 61, and Vol. 207, p. 360.

I propose that, if these understandings are acceptable to Your Excellency's Government, this note and Your Excellency's note in reply concurring therein shall constitute an Agreement between our two Governments, which shall enter into force on the date of Your Excellency's reply.

Accept, Excellency, the assurance of my most distinguished consideration.
