No. 5945. CULTURAL AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE STATE OF ISRAEL AND THE REPUBLIC OF MALI. SIGNED AT JERUSALEM, ON 24 NOVEMBER 1960

The Government of the State of Israel and the Government of the Republic of Mali,

Desiring to conclude a cultural agreement providing for friendly co-operation and exchange in order to promote the greatest possible accord between their countries in the intellectual, artistic and scientific spheres, and to foster understanding of the institutions and way of life of their respective countries,

Have for this purpose appointed as their plenipotentiaries :

The Government of the State of Israel :

Mrs. Golda Meir, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Israel ;

The Government of the Republic of Mali :

Jean-Marie Kone, Vice-President of the Government of Mali, who have agreed as follows :

Article I

The High Contracting Parties undertake to encourage and facilitate cultural exchanges between their countries and to support schemes and proposals for such exchanges.

Article II

The High Contracting Parties shall actively facilitate exchanges in the spheres of culture, science and literature and, in particular, shall on a basis of reciprocity, promote collaboration between research workers and scientists of the two countries, the exchange of writings, in the original language or in translation, publications, films and gramophone records of a cultural nature, and the exchange of copies of artistic works and objects.

Article III

The High Contracting Parties shall promote exchanges of writers, lecturers and students and shall do all in their power to facilitate such exchanges.

Article IV

The High Contracting Parties shall do everything necessary to facilitate the journeys of persons described in the preceding article who are their nationals and who are going from one country to the other in order to take part in cultural or scientific conferences or meetings.

Article V

The High Contracting Parties shall endeavour to expand tourism between their countries in order to further mutual understanding and to strengthen the accord between their two peoples as much as possible.

Article VI

The High Contracting Parties shall to the best of their ability endeavour to ensure the application of the foregoing provisions and, subject to reciprocity, shall make available all possible facilities under their legislation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the plenipotentiaries of the High Contracting Parties have signed this Agreement, done at Jerusalem on 24 November 1960 in duplicate, in the Hebrew and French languages, both texts being equally authentic.
