No. 5967. EXCHANGE OF NOTES CONSTITUTING AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND AND THE GOVERNMENT OF COLOMBIA REGARDING THE RECIPROCAL ABOLITION OF VISAS. BOGOTÁ, 26 MAY 1961

I

Her Majesty's Ambassador at Bogotá to the Colombian Minister for Foreign Affairs
BRITISH EMBASSY

Bogotá, May 26, 1961

No. 41

Monsieur le Ministre,

I have the honour to inform Your Excellency that, with a view to facilitating travel between the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and Colombia, Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom are prepared to conclude with the Government of Colombia an agreement in the following terms:

- (1) Colombian nationals holding valid Colombian passports shall be free to travel from any place whatever to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, The Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, without the necessity of obtaining a visa in advance.
- (2) British subjects holding valid passports bearing on the cover the inscription "British Passport" at the top, and at the bottom the inscription "United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland" or "Jersey" or "Guernsey and its Dependencies", and inside the description of the holder's national status as "British subject" or "British subject, citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies", or "British subject, citizen of the United Kingdom Islands and Colonies", who do not intend to take up residence in Colombia or set up in business or undertake employment or any activity yielding profit there, shall be free to travel to Colombia from any place whatever without the necessity of obtaining a visa in advance, and to leave Colombia without obtaining a permit to leave. Such a visit shall be limited to three months, but may be prolonged by the Colombian authorities in accordance with the appropriate regulations.
- (3) It is understood that the waiver of the visa requirement does not exempt Colombian nationals and British subjects coming respectively to the United Kingdom or The Channel Islands or the Isle of Man and to Colombia from the necessity of complying with the United Kingdom and Colombian laws and regulations concerning the entry, residence (temporary or permanent) and employment or occupation of foreigners, and that travellers who are unable to satisfy the immigration authorities that they comply with these laws and regulations are liable to be refused leave to enter or to land.

- (4) British subjects resident in Colombia in possession of passports as defined in subparagraph (2) above and travelling outside Colombia shall be able to obtain the necessary re-entry visa in Colombia before their departure.
- (5) The competent authorities of each country reserve the right to refuse leave to enter or stay in the country in any case where the person concerned is undesirable or otherwise ineligible under the general policy of the respective Governments relating to the entry of aliens.
- (6) Colombian citizens travelling to territories not referred to in sub-paragraph (1) of the present Note, for the international relations of which Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom are responsible, or British subjects not in possession of passports as defined in sub-paragraph (2) above shall not be exempt from the need of obtaining a visa.
- (7) Either Government may suspend the foregoing provisions in whole or in part temporarily for reasons of public policy, and the suspension shall be notified immediately to the other Government through the diplomatic channel and shall have immediate effect.
- (8) The present agreement shall enter into force thirty days after the date of this Exchange of Notes and may be denounced by either Government subject to thirty day's notice in writing.

If the above proposals are acceptable to the Government of Colombia, I have the honour to propose that the present Note and Your Excellency's reply to that effect shall be considered as placing on record the Agreement of the two Governments in this matter.

I have, &c.
