No. 6191. AGREEMENT<sup>1</sup> BETWEEN THE INTERNATIONAL LABOUR ORGANISATION AND THE GOVERNMENT OF TANGANYIKA CONCERNING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN EAST AFRICAN FIELD OFFICE IN DAR ES SALAAM. SIGNED AT GENEVA, ON 2 MARCH 1962, AND AT DAR ES SALAAM, ON 3 MAY 1962

---

Whereas the International Labour Organisation has decided to establish an East African Field Office; and

Whereas it has been considered appropriate to set up that Field Office in Tanganyika;

Whereas the Government of Tanganyika (hereinafter referred to as "the Government") has informed the International Labour Organisation of its readiness to grant all facilities to the East African Field Office;

The Government and the International Labour Organisation have entered into this Agreement through their undersigned duly authorised representatives.

Article 1

The Government will welcome the establishment of the East African Field Office of the International Labour Organisation at Dar es Salaam and will afford every assistance within its power in securing the necessary facilities for its establishment.

Article 2

The functions of the Field Office will be to furnish, at the request of any Government of the area within its scope of activity, technical assistance coming within the functions of the I.L.O. as provided by its Constitution,<sup>2</sup> as well as technical assistance in conformity with the principles governing the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance of the United Nations and the Specialised Agencies, and the operation of the Special Fund.

Article 3

The Government shall grant to the Field Office and to its staff the privileges and immunities provided for in the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialised Agencies.<sup>3</sup>

Article 4

The Government shall afford the International Labour Office every assistance within its power in securing appropriate office accommodation and necessary telephone, electricity and water installations.

Article 5

1. This Agreement shall come into force immediately on signature by the representatives of both parties.

2. The Agreement will remain in force while the East African Field Office remains established in Dar es Salaam.

3. The Agreement may be modified by mutual consent. Each party shall give full and sympathetic consideration to any request for such modification.

In WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned duly authorised representatives of the Government of Tanganyika and the International Labour Organisation respectively have, on behalf of the Parties, signed the present Agreement at Geneva this second day of March 1962 and at Dar es Salaam this third day of May 1962, in two copies in the English language.
