No. 6667. EXCHANGE OF MEMORANDA CONSTITUTING AN AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA RELATING TO THE CONSTRUCTION OF A COMMUNICATIONS FACILITY IN THE VICINITY OF KAOHSIUNG, TAIWAN. TAIPEI, 15 APRIL 1960

I

The American Embassy to the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs

MEMORANDUM

No. 36

The Embassy of the United States of America has the honor to refer to the desire of the United States Government to erect a communications facility in the vicinity of Kaohsiung requiring the construction of two antennas, with barracks and supporting facilities and requests the Foreign Ministry's confirmation that the provisions of the Collins Scatter Wave Radio Facility Agreement, effected by exchange of notes dated August 6, 1958, together with the accompanying letter of the same date,² will apply mutatis mutandis to the construction, maintenance and operation of the facility mentioned above and to the United States personnel now in Taiwan or who may enter Taiwan for the purpose of carrying out the functions contemplated by this understanding. The Embassy wishes to confirm its understanding that, upon effectuation of the Status of Forces Agreement which is now under negotiation between the two Governments, the facility in question and its personnel will be automatically covered thereunder.

The Embassy would appreciate a confirmation from the Foreign Ministry of its acceptance of the foregoing proposal.
