³ In accordance with article 19 (1), the Agreement came into force on 20 July 1963 ; it was considered as "definite" by the Government of Cyprus on 12 June 1963.

⁴ See footnote 2, p. 30 of this volume.

⁵ See p. 336 of this volume.

Such services and routes are hereinafter called "the agreed services" and "the specified routes" respectively.

The airline designated by each Contracting Party shall enjoy, while operating an agreed service on a specified route, the following rights :

- (a) to fly, without landing, across the territory of the other Contracting Party ;
- (b) to make stops in the said territory for non-traffic purposes ;
- (c) to make stops in the said territory at the points specified for that route in the Annex to the present Agreement, for the purpose of putting down and taking on international traffic in passengers, cargo and mail.

2. Nothing in paragraph (1) of this Article shall be deemed to confer on the airline of one Contracting Party the privilege of taking up, in the territory of the other Contracting Party, passengers, cargo or mail carried for remuneration or hire and destined for another point in the territory of that other Contracting Party.

Article 3

1. Each Contracting Party has the right to designate in writing to the other Contracting Party one airline for the purpose of operating the agreed services on the specified routes.

2. On receipt of such designation, the other Contracting Party shall, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (3) and (4) of this Article, without delay, grant to the designated airline the appropriate operating authorization.

3. The Aeronautical Authorities of one Contracting Party may require the airline designated by the other Contracting Party to satisfy them that it is qualified to fulfill the conditions prescribed under the laws and regulations normally and reasonably applied to the operation of international air services by such authorities in conformity with the provisions of the Convention.

4. Each Contracting Party shall have the right to refuse to grant the operating authorization referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article, or to impose such conditions as it may deem necessary on the exercise by the designated airline of the rights specified in Article 2, in any case where the said Contracting Party is not satisfied that substantial ownership and effective control of that airline are vested in the Contracting Party designating the airline or in its nationals.

5. When an airline has been so designated and authorized, it may begin at any time to operate the agreed services, provided that a tariff, established in accordance with the provisions of Article 10 of the present Agreement, is in force in respect of that service.

Article 4

1. There shall be fair and equal opportunity for the designated airline of each Contracting Party to operate on any route specified in accordance with the Article 2 of the present Agreement.
2. In the operation of international air services on the routes specified in accordance with Article 2 of the present Agreement, the designated airline of one Contracting Party shall take account of the interests of the designated airline of the other Contracting Party so as not to affect unduly the air services which the latter airline operates on the same routes or parts of them.
3. The international air services on the routes specified in accordance with Article 2 of the present Agreement shall have as their primary objective the provision of capacity adequate to the foreseeable traffic demands in passengers, cargo and mail to and from the territory of the Contracting Party designating the airline. The right of each of the designated airlines to carry traffic between points in the territory of the other Contracting Party and points in the territory of third countries on the specified routes in accordance with Article 2 of the present Agreement shall be exercised in the interests of an orderly development of international air transport in such a way that capacity is related to :

Each Contracting Party shall have the right to revoke an operating authorization or to suspend the exercise of the rights specified in Article 2 of the present Agreement by the airline designated by the other Contracting Party, or to impose such conditions as it may deem necessary on the exercise of these rights :

- (a) in any case where it is not satisfied that substantial ownership and effective control of that airline are vested in the Contracting Party designating the airline or in nationals of such Contracting Party, or
- (b) in the case of failure by that airline to comply with the laws or regulations of the Contracting Party granting these rights, or
- (c) in case the airline otherwise fails to operate in accordance with the conditions prescribed under the present Agreement.

2. Unless immediate revocation, suspension or imposition of the conditions mentioned in paragraph (1) of this Article is essential to prevent further infringements of laws or regulations, such right shall be exercised only after consultation with the other Contracting Party.

Article 7

Aircraft operated on international services by the designated airline of either Contracting Party, as well as their regular equipment, supplies of fuels and lubricants, and aircraft stores including food, beverages and tobacco on board such aircraft shall be exempt from all customs duties, inspection fees and other duties or taxes on arriving in the territory of the other Contracting Party, provided such equipment and supplies shall remain on board the aircraft up to such time as they are re-exported.
