(i) The words "members of the Secretariat of the Council" mean members of the Secretariat of the Council working in the institutions of the Council situated in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic.

Article II

LOCATION OF INSTITUTIONS OF THE COUNCIL

1. The institutions of the Council shall be located in the premises a plan of which is annexed² to this Agreement.

The said premises shall be leased to the Council by the Government on a basis of equality with government institutions of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic. The terms of the lease shall be fixed by agreement between the Secretary of the Council and the competent organs.

The location of the institutions of the Council may be changed by agreement between the Secretary of the Council and the competent organs.

2. The Council may, in agreement with the competent organs, establish and operate telecommunication facilities in the premises occupied by it.

Article III

INVIOABILITY OF THE COUNCIL PREMISES

In accordance with the Convention concerning the juridical personality, privileges and immunities of the Council, the premises of the Council shall be inviolable.

No representative of the central or local authorities of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic or other person performing official functions of any kind in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic shall enter the premises of the Council to perform any official duties therein without the consent of the Secretary of the Council.

Article IV

PROTECTION OF THE COUNCIL PREMISES

1. The competent organs shall provide for the external security of the premises of the Council free of charge.

2. At the request of the Secretary of the Council, the competent organs shall provide as may be required for the internal security of the premises occupied by the Council. All expenses connected with such service shall be defrayed by the Council.

3. The competent organs shall take the appropriate measures to prevent any prejudice to the amenities on the land directly adjacent to the premises of the Council.

Article V

SERVICES FOR THE INSTITUTIONS OF THE COUNCIL

1. The competent organs shall provide the institutions of the Council, in accordance with the rules and rates in force in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic, with the necessary public services and with transport facilities, fire protection, and the like. In accordance with the Convention concerning the juridical personality, privileges and immunities of the Council, the Council shall enjoy in the territory of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic treatment not less favourable than that enjoyed by diplomatic missions in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic in the matter of priorities, rates and taxes on post, cable and telephone communications.

2. In case of any interruption of any of the services referred to in paragraph 1, the competent organs shall give the needs of the institutions of the Council equal priority with similar needs of government institutions of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic and shall take the necessary steps to ensure that the work of the institutions of the Council is not prejudiced.

3. At the request of the Secretary of the Council, the competent organs shall make available to the Council, in accordance with the rules and rates in force in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic, the diplomatic courier service used by the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic for communication with its diplomatic representatives in other countries.

For the dispatch of correspondence from, to or through the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic, the Council may use special couriers who, while carrying out their official duties, shall have the same privileges and immunities in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic as diplomatic couriers.

4. At the request of the Secretary of the Council, the competent organs shall provide the Council, on equal terms with government institutions of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic, with the necessary household and building materials, fixtures, equipment, furniture and office supplies and shall assign the necessary number of specialists and workers to carry out repairs to the premises of the Council, install equipment therein, and so forth.

5. Vehicles belonging to or used by the Council shall be repaired and otherwise serviced by the competent organs on the same terms as vehicles belonging to or used by government institutions of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic.

Article VI

FINANCIAL QUESTIONS

1. The Council's financial transactions shall not be subject to supervision by the central or local authorities of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic.

2. The Council may have accounts in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic in Czechoslovak crowns or in the currency of any other member country of the Council, may use the funds in such accounts in order to make payments in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic and may transfer the said funds in order to make payments in the territory of other member countries of the Council.

The Council may also have unrestricted bank accounts in any other currency. The conditions governing such accounts shall be the same as those governing similar accounts of diplomatic missions in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic.

3. In accordance with the Convention concerning the juridical personality, privileges and immunities of the Council, the Council shall be exempt in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic from all direct taxes and duties levied either by State or by local authorities. This exemption shall not apply to charges for public utility and similar services. The Council shall be exempt from Customs duties and restrictions on imports into or exports from the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic of articles intended for official use.

4. The Council shall, in accordance with the law of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic, make compulsory contributions to the competent organs in respect of sickness insurance for members of the Secretariat of the Council who are citizens of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic.

Article VII

TRANSIT AND RESIDENCE

1. The competent organs shall extend the necessary co-operation to persons entering and leaving the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic on Council business.

2. The Council may issue to its officials certificates which shall be recognized by the competent organs as documentary evidence that the persons concerned are entitled to the privileges and immunities granted under the Convention concerning the juridical personality, privileges and immunities of the Council.

3. The Secretary of the Council shall communicate to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic lists of the members of the Secretariat of the Council who are not citizens of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic, indicating their year of birth, citizenship, position and address. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic shall issue identity cards to the staff members concerned. These cards shall serve to identify the holder in relation to all authorities of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic.

4. The Secretary of the Council and the competent organs shall agree on a list of officials of the Council possessing Czechoslovak citizenship who shall enjoy temporary exemption from national service obligations, including obligations of a military nature.

Article VIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. The Government recognizes the right of the Council to issue printed publications in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic for the purposes specified in its Charter. In exercising this right, the Council shall observe the legal provisions governing printed publications in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic.

2. Articles and materials imported by the Council from other countries and scarce materials and articles supplied to the Council in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic may not be sold by it in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic without the consent of the competent organs.

3. The Secretary of the Council and the competent organs may where necessary conclude additional agreements for the purpose of giving effect to this Agreement.

4. Any questions that may arise in connexion with the application of this Agreement shall be settled by negotiation between the Council and the Government.

5. This Agreement shall enter into force after an exchange of letters between the Secretary of the Council and the representative of the Government on the matter of putting the Agreement into effect.

6. This Agreement may be amended by agreement between the Council and the Government. If the functions of the Council's institutions in the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic come to an end, the Agreement shall cease to have effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the representatives of the Council and the Government have signed this Agreement.

DONE at Moscow, on 20 July 1962 in two copies, each in the Russian and Czech languages, both texts being equally authentic.
