No. 7403. AGREEMENT<sup>1</sup> BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT OF NEPAL FOR THE PROVISION OF OPERATIONAL, EXECUTIVE AND ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL. SIGNED AT KATHMANDU, ON 18 AUGUST 1958

---

The United Nations and His Majesty's Government of Nepal (hereinafter called "His Majesty's Government"), desiring to join in the furthering the development of the administrative services of His Majesty's Government, have entered into this agreement in a spirit of friendly cooperation.

Article I

SCOPE OF THIS AGREEMENT

1. This Agreement embodies the conditions under which the United Nations shall provide His Majesty's Government with the services of administrative officers or specialists (hereinafter referred to as "officers"). It also embodies the basic conditions which govern the relationship between His Majesty's Government and the officers. His Majesty's Government and the officers may enter into agreements between themselves or adopt such arrangements as may be appropriate concerning their mutual relationship. However, any such agreement or arrangement shall be subject to the provisions of this Agreement, and shall be communicated to the United Nations.
2. The relationship between the United Nations and the officers shall be defined in contracts which the United Nations may enter into with such officers. A copy of the contract which the United Nations intends to use for this purpose is herewith transmitted for His Majesty's Government's information as Annex I<sup>2</sup> of this Agreement. The United Nations undertakes to furnish His Majesty's Government with copies of individual contracts actually concluded between the United Nations and the officers within one month after such contracts are concluded.

Article II

FUNCTIONS OF THE OFFICERS

1. The officers to be provided under this Agreement shall be available to perform operational, executive or managerial functions, including training, for His Majesty's Government or, if so agreed by the United Nations and His Majesty's Government, in other public agencies or public corporations or public bodies, or in national agencies or bodies other than those of a public character.

2. In the performance of the duties assigned to them by His Majesty's Government, the officers shall be solely responsible to, and under the exclusive direction of, His Majesty's Government; they shall not report to nor take instructions from the United Nations or any other person or body external to His Majesty's Government except with the approval of His Majesty's Government. In each case His Majesty's Government shall designate the authority to which the officer will be immediately responsible.

3. The Parties hereto recognize that a special international status attaches to the officers made available to His Majesty's Government under this Agreement, and that the assistance provided His Majesty's Government hereunder is in furtherance of the purposes of the United Nations. Accordingly, the officers shall not be required to perform any function incompatible with such special international status or with the purposes of the United Nations.

4. In implementation of the preceding paragraph, but without restricting its generality or the generality of the last sentence of paragraph 1 of Article I, any agreements entered into by His Majesty's Government with the officers shall embody a specific provision to the effect that the officer shall not perform any functions incompatible with his special international status or with the purposes of the United Nations.

Article III

OBIGATIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS

1. The United Nations undertakes to provide, in response to His Majesty's Government's requests, experienced officers to perform the functions described in Article II above.

2. The United Nations undertakes to provide such officers in accordance with any applicable resolutions and decisions of its competent organs, and subject to the availability of the necessary funds.

3. The United Nations undertakes, within the financial resources available to it, to provide administrative facilities necessary to the successful implementation of this Agreement, specifically including the payment of stipends and allowances to supplement, as appropriate, the salaries paid the officers by His Majesty's Government under Article IV, paragraph 1. of this Agreement, and upon request, effecting payments in currencies unavailable to His Majesty's Government, and making arrangements for travel and transportation outside Nepal when the officer, his family or belongings are moved under the terms of his contract.

4. The United Nations undertakes to provide the officer with such subsidiary benefits as it may deem appropriate, including compensation in the event of death, injury or illness attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of His Majesty's Government. Such subsidiary benefits shall be specified in contracts to be entered into between the United Nations and the officer.

5. The United Nations undertakes to extend its good offices in a spirit of friendly cooperation towards the making of any necessary amendment to the conditions of service of the officer, including the cessation of such service if and when it becomes necessary.

Article IV

OBLIGATIONS OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT

1. His Majesty's Government shall contribute to the cost of implementing this Agreement by paying the officer the salary and related emoluments which would be payable to a national civil servant or other comparable employee holding the rank to which the officer is assimilated.

2. His Majesty's Government shall provide the officer with such services and facilities, including local transportation, and medical and hospital facilities, as are normally made available to a national civil servant or other comparable employee holding the rank to which the officer is assimilated.

3. His Majesty's Government shall use its best endeavours to locate suitable housing and make it available to the officer.

4. His Majesty's Government shall grant the officer the annual and sick leave available to a national civil servant or other comparable employee holding the rank to which the officer is assimilated. His Majesty's Government shall grant to the officer such further annual leave, not exceeding total leave at the rate of thirty working days per annum, as may be required to permit him to enjoy such home leave as he may be entitled to under the terms of his contract with the United Nations.

5. His Majesty's Government recognizes that the officers shall :

- (a) be immune from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts performed by them in their official capacity ;
- (b) be exempt from taxation on the salaries and emoluments paid to them by the United Nations ;
- (c) be immune from national service obligations ;
- (d) be immune, together with their spouses and relatives dependent upon them, from immigration restrictions and alien registration ;

- (e) be accorded the same privileges in respect of exchange facilities as are accorded to the officials of comparable ranks forming part of diplomatic missions to His Majesty's Government ;
- (f) be given, together with their spouses and relatives dependent on them, the same repatriation facilities in time of international crisis as diplomatic envoys ;
- (g) have the right to import free of duty their furniture and effects at the time of first taking up their post in the country in question.

6. The assistance rendered pursuant to the terms of this Agreement is in the exclusive interest and for the exclusive benefit of the people and His Majesty's Government. In recognition thereof, His Majesty's Government shall bear all risks and claims resulting from, occurring in the course of, or otherwise connected with any operation covered by this Agreement. Without restricting the generality of the preceding sentence, His Majesty's Government shall indemnify and hold harmless the United Nations and the officers against any and all liability suits, actions, demands, damages, costs or fees on account of death, injuries to person or property, or any other losses resulting from or connected with any act or omission performed in the course of operations covered by this Agreement.

7. His Majesty's Government shall do everything within its means to ensure the effective use of the officers provided and will, as far as practicable, make available to the United Nations information on the results achieved by this assistance.

8. His Majesty's Government shall defray such portions of the expenses to be paid outside the country as may be mutually agreed upon.

Article V

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

1. Any dispute between His Majesty's Government and any officer arising out of or relating to the conditions of his service may be referred to the United Nations by either His Majesty's Government or the officer involved, and the United Nations shall use its good offices to assist them in arriving at a settlement. If the dispute cannot be settled in accordance with the preceding sentence the matter shall be submitted to arbitration at the request of either party to the dispute pursuant to paragraph 3 below.

2. Any dispute between the United Nations and His Majesty's Government arising out of or relating to this Agreement which cannot be settled by negotiation or other agreed mode of settlement shall be submitted to arbitration at the request of either party to the dispute pursuant to paragraph 3 below.

3. Any dispute to be submitted to arbitration in accordance with paragraph 1 or 2 above shall be referred to three arbitrators for decision by a majority of them. Each party to the dispute shall appoint one arbitrator, and the two arbitrators so appointed shall appoint the third, who shall be the chairman. If within thirty days of the request for arbitration either party has not appointed an arbitrator or if within fifteen days of the appointment of two arbitrators the third arbitrator has not been appointed, either party may request the Secretary-General of the permanent Court of Arbitration to appoint an arbitrator. The procedure of the arbitration shall be fixed by the arbitrators, and the expenses of the arbitration shall be borne by the parties as assessed by the arbitrators. The arbitral award shall contain a statement of the reasons on which it is based and shall be accepted by the parties to the dispute as the final adjudication thereof.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. This Agreement shall enter into force upon signature.
2. This Agreement may be modified by agreement between the United Nations and His Majesty's Government, but without prejudice to the rights of officers holding appointments pursuant to this Agreement. Any relevant matter for which no provision is made in this Agreement shall be settled by the United Nations and His Majesty's Government. Each party to this Agreement shall give full and sympathetic consideration to any proposal for such settlement advanced by the other party.
3. This Agreement may be terminated by the United Nations or by His Majesty's Government upon written notice to the other party and shall terminate sixty days after receipt of such notice.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, duly appointed representatives of the United Nations and of His Majesty's Government, respectively, have on behalf of the parties, signed the present Agreement at Kathmandu this 18th August 1958 in the English language in two copies.
