No. 8018. AGREEMENT¹ OF JERUSALEM ON TECHNICAL CO-OPERATION BETWEEN THE STATE OF ISRAEL AND THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC. SIGNED AT JERUSALEM, ON 25 DECEMBER 1963

The Government of the State of Israel and the Government of the Dominican Republic,

Prompted by the noble desire to strengthen still further the traditional ties of friendship existing between them and to encourage closer relations in the sphere of economic and technical co-operation between their peoples ; and

Recognizing the contribution that can be made towards the attainment of those objectives through technical co-operation agreements designed to promote the exchange of experience and knowledge in activities calculated to foster the development of economic resources, the expansion of countries' productive capacity and the growing well-being of their peoples, have decided to conclude, in a spirit of friendly co-operation, an agreement with a view to the achievement of the aforementioned aims and have for that purpose appointed as their plenipotentiaries :

The Government of Israel :

Her Excellency Mrs. Golda Meir, Minister for Foreign Affairs ;

The Government of the Dominican Republic :

His Excellency Dr. Donald J. Reid Cabral, Minister for Foreign Affairs, who, having exchanged their powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows :

Article I

Each of the High Contracting Parties declares its willingness to make available to the other High Contracting Party and its nationals knowledge and experience in the following fields :

1. Reclamation of arid zones ;
2. Study of the problems involved in the development and settlement of frontier regions ;

¹ Came into force on 5 May 1965, the day on which the instruments of ratification were exchanged at Santo Domingo, in accordance with article 3.

3. Training of instructors in co-operative organization ;
4. Establishment of agricultural training centres ;
5. Advice concerning municipal and regional authorities ;
6. Any other field agreed upon by the High Contracting Parties.

Article II

Each specific co-operation project shall be executed in accordance with the provisions of such separate contracts or agreements as may be concluded for the aforementioned purposes pursuant to this Agreement.

Article III

This Agreement shall be ratified in accordance with the legislation in force in each country and the instruments of ratification shall be exchanged between the High Contracting Parties as soon as possible.

This Agreement shall enter into force immediately after the exchange of the instruments of ratification.

Either of the High Contracting Parties may denounce this Agreement at any time by means of a diplomatic communication addressed to the other Party. The denunciation shall take effect one year after its receipt by the other Contracting Party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the above-mentioned plenipotentiaries have signed this Agreement.

DONE at Jerusalem in two identical copies, each in the Hebrew and Spanish languages, both texts being equally authentic, on the 9th day of the month of Tevet in the year 5724, i.e., 25 December 1963.
