No. 8022. CULTURAL AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL AND THE GOVERNMENT OF SIERRA LEONE. SIGNED AT JERUSALEM, ON 22 AUGUST 1965

The Government of the State of Israel and the Government of Sierra Leone,

Desirous of promoting, by means of a cultural agreement for friendly cooperation and exchange, the fullest possible understanding between their respective countries in the intellectual, artistic and scientific fields, as well as acquaintance with the institutions and social life of their respective countries,

Have decided to conclude the present Cultural Agreement and have appointed as their plenipotentiaries for this purpose :

The Government of Israel :

Mrs. Golda Meir, Minister for Foreign Affairs,

The Government of Sierra Leone :

Mr. Cyril Rogers-Wright, Minister of External Affairs,

who have agreed as follows :

Article 1

The High Contracting Parties undertake to encourage and facilitate cultural exchange between their two countries and to support schemes and ventures aimed at these objectives.

Article 2

The High Contracting Parties will take care to facilitate exchanges in the spheres of culture, science and literature and, in particular, on a basis of reciprocity, encourage cooperation between research workers and scientists of the two countries, the exchange of books, in the original or in translation, and of periodicals, films and records of an educational character, as well as the exchange of copies of works and objects of an artistic character.

¹ Came into force on 22 August 1965, upon signature, in accordance with article 7.

Article 3

The High Contracting Parties will favour the exchange of writers, lecturers and students and will do everything in their power to facilitate the attainment of these objectives.

Article 4

The High Contracting Parties will take all measures calculated to facilitate journeys of their nationals referred to in the preceding article from one country to the other with a view to taking part in conferences or cultural or scientific gatherings.

Article 5

The High Contracting Parties will concern themselves with the development of tourism between the two countries with a view to promoting mutual acquaintance and rendering the understanding between the two peoples as complete as possible.

Article 6

The High Contracting Parties will see to it, by means at their disposal, within the framework of their internal legislation and on condition of reciprocity, that all the foregoing provisions are implemented and will, for that purpose, grant all desirable facilities.

Article 7

This Agreement shall enter into force upon signature, and may be modified by exchange of Notes between duly appointed representatives of the High Contracting Parties.

Article 8

This Agreement shall remain in force indefinitely, but may be terminated at any time by notice in writing (to take effect twelve months after the receipt of such notice) given by one High Contracting Party to the other.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned Plenipotentiaries of the High Contracting Parties have signed this Agreement in two originals, each in the Hebrew and English languages, both texts being equally authentic, and this in Jerusalem, this 24th day of Av 5725, which corresponds to the 22nd day of August 1965.

For and on behalf of the Government of Israel :
Golda MEIR
Minister for Foreign Affairs

For and on behalf of the Government of Sierra Leone :
Cyril ROGERS-WRIGHT
Minister of External Affairs
