Mr. Ambassador,

(2) Subjects of Monaco shall freely enter Ireland without the obligation of procuring a visa in advance, provided that they are in possession of valid passports of Monaco.

(3) It is understood that the abolition of visas will not exempt Irish citizens and subjects of Monaco entering the Principality of Monaco and Ireland respectively, from the obligation of conforming to the laws and regulations of Ireland and Monaco applicable to foreigners in regard to entry, short stay, residence and taking of employment.

(4) This agreement shall in no way affect the right of the competent authorities of both countries to refuse permission to enter, or to expel any person who may be considered as undesirable or who cannot satisfy the said authorities that he has complied with the laws and regulations referred to in paragraph 3 above.

If the Irish Government is prepared to accept the preceding provisions I have the honour to suggest that the present letter and Your Excellency's reply
