ROYAL NETHERLANDS EMBASSY

No. 4338

The Royal Netherlands Embassy presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and has the honour to refer to the Extradition Treaty between the Kingdom of the Netherlands and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, signed in London on 26th September 1898,² which Treaty was extended, inter alia, to the territory of Uganda before the attainment of its independence, by virtue of a Treaty signed at The Hague on 17th August 1914.³

The Embassy has been instructed by the Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands to propose to the Government of Uganda that the relations between the two States shall be governed by the provisions of the said Treaty of 26th September 1898, pending the conclusion of a new extradition treaty between them.

If this proposal is acceptable to the Government of Uganda, the Embassy has the honour further to propose that this Note and the Ministry's reply, if it is in the affirmative, shall constitute an agreement between the two Governments on this subject, which agreement shall apply, as regards the Kingdom of the Netherlands, to the territory of the Kingdom in Europe and to Surinam, and shall enter into force on the date of the said reply.

¹ Came into force on 27 January 1967 by the exchange of the said notes.
