CULTURAL AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE ARGENTINE
REPUBLIC AND THE REPUBLIC OF TURKEY

The Government of the Argentine Republic and the Government of the Republic of Turkey, desiring to develop cultural relations between their two countries and to strengthen bonds of their friendship, have decided to conclude a cultural agreement for this purpose and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries :

For the Government of the Argentine Republic :

His Excellency Mr. Samuel Allperin ;

For the Government of the Republic of Turkey :

His Excellency Mr. Hasan Esat Işık, who, after verification of their full powers, have agreed as follows :

Article I

The High Contracting Parties shall promote projects and activities tending to develop cultural relations between the two countries.

Article II

The High Contracting Parties shall promote the establishment of a centre of Argentine studies in Turkey and a centre of Turkish studies in Argentina.

Article III

The High Contracting Parties shall encourage contacts between the scientific and artistic circles of the two countries and visits by teachers, lecturers, artists and authors from one country to the other.

Article IV

The High Contracting Parties shall facilitate the exchange of literary, scientific, technological and artistic works between public organizations, universities and private organizations, in order to increase each country's knowledge and understanding of the other.

¹ Came into force on 10 March 1969, by the exchange of the instruments of ratification, which took place at Buenos Aires, in accordance with article X.

Article V

The Government of each Contracting Country shall grant scholarships to students of the other country.

Article VI

Each Government shall encourage the translation of literary and scientific works written in the language of the other country.

Article VII

The High Contracting Parties shall encourage the two countries to organize film festivals and art exhibitions in each other's territories.

Article VIII

The High Contracting Parties shall promote exchanges in the various categories of sports.

Article IX

The High Contracting Parties shall take steps to develop relations with regard to tourism and shall grant the nationals of the other country every facility within the framework of their respective legislations.

Article X

This agreement shall enter into force the date of the exchange of the instruments of ratification and shall remain in force until it is terminated by one of the High Contracting Parties. Termination may not take place within the first twelve months following the entry into force of the agreement, and notice in writing must be given to the other Party three months before the agreement is terminated.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Plenipotentiaries have signed this agreement drawn up in the French language.

DONE in duplicate at Ankara on 19 August 1965.
