HEADQUARTERS AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND AND THE INTERNATIONAL SUGAR ORGANIZATION

The Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the International Sugar Organization;

Having regard to paragraph (2) of Article 20 of the International Sugar Agreement 1968, open for signature at United Nations Headquarters from 3rd until 24th December 1968;²

Desiring to define the status, privileges and immunities of the Organization;

Have agreed as follows :

Article 1

For the purpose of this Agreement :

(a) "Organization" means the International Sugar Organization;

(b) "Government" means the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland;

(c) "representatives of Member countries" means heads of delegations and alternates of Members of the Organization;

(d) "premises of the Organization" means the buildings or parts of buildings and the land ancillary thereto used for the official purposes of the Organization;

(e) "official activities of the Organization" includes its administrative activities and those undertaken pursuant to the International Sugar Agreement 1968 or any subsequent Agreement which replaces it; and

(f) "staff member" includes all persons recruited by the Executive Director for employment by the Organization and subject to the staff regulations of the Organization, other than experts and persons recruited locally and assigned to hourly rates of pay.

¹ Came into force on 29 May 1969 by signature, in accordance with article 29 (1).

Article 2

This Agreement shall be interpreted in the light of its primary objective of enabling the Organization at its Headquarters in the United Kingdom fully and efficiently to discharge its responsibilities and fulfil its purposes and functions.

Article 3

The Organization shall have legal personality. It shall in particular have the capacity to contract and to acquire and dispose of movable and immovable property and to institute legal proceedings.

Article 4

The archives of the Organization shall be inviolable. The term archives includes all records, correspondence, documents, manuscripts, photographs, films and recordings belonging to or held by the Organization.

Article 5

(1) The premises of the Organization shall be inviolable. The Government are under a special duty to take all appropriate steps to protect the premises of the Organization against any intrusion or damage and to prevent any disturbance of the peace of the Organization or impairment of its dignity.

(2) The location of the premises and the archives of the Organization shall be made known to the Government by the Executive Director who shall also inform the Government of any change in the location or extent of such premises or archives and of any temporary occupation of premises for the fulfilment of its official functions. Where premises are temporarily used or occupied by the Organization for the fulfilment of its official functions, these premises shall, with the agreement of the appropriate authorities, be accorded the status of premises of the Organization.

(3) No official of the Government or person exercising any public authority shall enter the premises of the Organization except with the consent of, and under conditions approved by, the Executive Director. No service (other than attempted service by post) or execution of any legal process or any ancillary act such as the seizure of private property shall be permitted by the Government to take place within the premises of the Organization except with the express consent of, and under conditions approved by, the Executive Director. Process sent by post addressed to the Organization shall not be regarded as effecting service.

(4) Without prejudice to the terms of this Agreement, the Organization shall not permit the premises of the Organization to become a refuge from justice for persons who are avoiding arrest or service of legal process under the law of the United Kingdom or against whom an order of extradition or deportation has been issued by the appropriate authorities.

Article 6

(1) The Government undertake to assist the Organization in the acquisition of premises by gift, purchase or lease or the hire of premises at such time as they may be needed.

(2) The Government shall do their utmost to ensure that the premises shall be supplied with necessary public services, including electricity, water, sewerage, gas, post, telephone, telegraph, drainage, collection of refuse and fire protection and that such public services be supplied on reasonable terms. In case of interruption or threatened interruption of any such services, the Government shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Organization is not prejudiced.

Article 7

The Organization shall be entitled to display its flag and emblem on the premises and means of transport of the Organization and of the Executive Director.

Article 8

(1) The Organization shall have immunity from jurisdiction and execution except :

- (a) to the extent that the Organization shall have expressly waived such immunity in a particular case;
- (b) in respect of a civil action by a third party for damage arising from an accident caused by a motor vehicle belonging to, or operated on behalf of, the Organization, or in respect of a motor traffic offence involving such a vehicle; and
- (c) in respect of an enforcement of an arbitration award made under either Article 24, Article 25 or Article 28.

(2) The Organization's property and assets wherever situated shall be immune from any form of requisition, confiscation, expropriation or sequestration. They shall also be immune from any form of administrative or provisional judicial constraint, except insofar as may be temporarily necessary in connection with the prevention of, and investigation into, accidents involving motor vehicles belonging to, or operated on behalf of, the Organization.

Article 9

(1) Within the scope of its official activities, the Organization and its property and income shall be exempt from all direct taxes. Direct taxes include :

- (a) income tax and surtax;
- (b) capital gains tax;
- (c) corporation tax;
- (d) selective employment tax; and
- (e) municipal rates levied on the premises of the Organization except the proportion which, as in the case of diplomatic missions, represents payments for specific services rendered.

The municipal rates referred to in sub-paragraph (e) shall in the first instance be paid by the appropriate authorities and the proportion which represents payment for specific services rendered shall be recovered by them from the Organization.

(2) The Organization shall be accorded a refund of the tax element in the price paid for purchases necessary for its official activities. In this connection, the purchases envisaged are those made on a recurring basis or involving considerable quantities of goods, commodities or materials, or those involving considerable expenditure such as the furnishing of the premises of the Organization or the principal residence of the Executive Director. The Organization shall be accorded a refund of the excise duty element included in the price of spirits of United Kingdom origin purchased in the United Kingdom for the purpose of official entertainment to the extent that such relief is accorded to diplomatic missions. A certificate by the Executive Director that any purchase is for the purpose of official entertainment shall be accepted as conclusive.

Article 10

(1) Goods imported or exported by the Organization and necessary for the exercise of its official activities shall be exempt from all customs duties and other customs charges (except mere payments for services) and from all prohibitions and restrictions on import or export.

(2) The Organization shall be accorded a refund of the customs duty on hydrocarbon oils purchased by the Organization and necessary for the exercise of its official activities.

Article 11

Exemption in respect of taxes or customs duties under Article 9 or Article 10 shall not be granted in respect of goods purchased and imported for the personal benefit of the staff members of the Organization.

Article 12

Goods which have been acquired under Article 9 or imported under Article 10 shall not be sold or given away in the United Kingdom except in accordance with conditions agreed with the Government.

Article 13

The Organization may receive, acquire, hold and dispose of freely any kind of funds, currencies or securities.

Article 14

(1) The Government shall permit and protect unrestricted communication on the part of the Organization for all official purposes. The Organization may employ all appropriate means of communication, including messages in code or cypher. However, the Organisation may install and use a wireless transmitter only with the consent of the appropriate authorities. The Executive Director shall permit the inspection of wireless transmitting apparatus at all reasonable times by the appropriate authorities.

(2) No censorship shall be applied to official communications of the Organization by whatever means of communication.

Article 15

The circulation of publications and other information material sent by or to the Organization shall not be restricted in any way.

Article 16

(1) Representatives of Member countries shall enjoy while exercising their functions and in the course of their journeys to and from the place of meeting the following privileges and immunities :

- (a) immunity from arrest and detention, and from seizure of their personal luggage;
- (b) immunity from jurisdiction (even after the termination of their mission) in respect of acts done by them in the exercise of their functions, including words written or spoken;
- (c) inviolability for all their official papers and documents;
- (d) the right to use codes and to receive documents or correspondence by special courier or sealed bag;
- (e) exemption for themselves and their spouses from all measures restricting entry, from charges for visas and from aliens' registration formalities;

- (f) the same facilities in the matter of currency and exchange control as are accorded to a diplomatic agent in the United Kingdom of the State which they represent, it being understood that where diplomatic relations with that State do not exist or have been broken off the facilities accorded shall be no less than those given to a diplomatic agent of any third State inside or outside the Scheduled Territories, as appropriate; and
- (g) the same customs facilities as regards their personal luggage as are accorded to diplomatic agents.

(2) The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be applicable irrespective of the relations existing between the Governments which the persons referred to represent and the Government of the United Kingdom and are without prejudice to any special immunities to which such persons may be entitled.

(3) The privileges and immunities described in paragraph (1) of this Article shall not be accorded to any representative of the Government or to any citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies.

(4) Privileges and immunities are accorded to representatives of Member countries in order to ensure complete independence in the exercise of their functions in connection with the Organization. A Member country may waive the immunity of its representative where, in the opinion of that country, the immunity would impede the course of justice and where it can be waived without prejudicing the purposes for which it was accorded.

Article 17

In addition to the privileges and immunities provided for in Article 18 of this Agreement, the Executive Director of the Organization and, when the office is vacant, the staff member specially designated to act in his place, unless in either case he is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies or a permanent resident of the United Kingdom, shall enjoy the privileges and immunities (other than priority for telecommunications and facilities in matters of exchange control) to which a diplomatic agent in the United Kingdom is entitled. In matters of exchange control they shall enjoy the facilities which are accorded to a diplomatic agent in the United Kingdom of a State inside or outside the Scheduled Territories, as appropriate.

Article 18

The staff members of the Organization :

- (a) shall have (even after they have left the service of the Organization) immunity from jurisdiction in respect of acts done by them in the exercise of their functions, including words written or spoken; this immunity shall not however apply in the case of a motor traffic offence

- committed by a staff member of the Organization nor in the case of damage caused by a motor vehicle belonging to or driven by a staff member;
- (b) shall be exempt from any obligations in respect of military service, and members of their families forming part of their households shall enjoy the same exemption, provided that this exemption shall not apply to any person who is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies;
 - (c) shall enjoy inviolability for all their official papers and documents;
 - (d) shall enjoy exemption from all measures restricting immigration, from charges for visas and from aliens' registration formalities, and members of their families forming part of their households shall enjoy the same facilities;
 - (e) shall be accorded the treatment in matters of exchange control which is accorded to a diplomatic agent in the United Kingdom of the State in which they are resident for exchange control purposes when appointed a staff member;
 - (f) shall enjoy the same facilities as to repatriation as diplomatic agents in time of international crisis, and members of their families forming part of their households shall enjoy the same facilities; and
 - (g) unless they are citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies, shall at the time of first taking up their post in the United Kingdom be exempt from customs duties and other customs charges (except mere payments for services) in respect of import of their furniture and personal effects (including one motor car each) in their ownership or possession or already ordered by them and intended for their personal use of for their establishment. Such goods shall normally be imported within three months of the first entry of the staff member into the United Kingdom, but in exceptional circumstances an extension of this period may be granted. This privilege shall be subject to conditions agreed with the Government.

Article 19

Experts (other than the staff members referred to in Article 18), in the exercise of their functions in connection with the Organization or in carrying out missions for the Organization, shall enjoy the following privileges and immunities to the extent that they are necessary for the carrying out of their functions, including during journeys made in carrying out their functions and in the course of such missions :

- (a) immunity from jurisdiction in respect of acts done by them in the exercise of their functions, including words written or spoken, except in the case of a motor traffic offence committed by an expert or in the case of damage caused by a motor vehicle belonging to or driven by him; experts shall continue to enjoy this immunity after they have ceased to be employed by the Organization;

- (b) inviolability for all their official papers and documents;
- (c) the same facilities as regards monetary and exchange regulations as are accorded to diplomatic agents in the United Kingdom of the State of which they are residents; and
- (d) the same facilities as regards their personal luggage as are accorded to officials of the State of which they are residents on temporary official missions.

Article 20

(1) The Executive Director and the staff members of the Organization shall be subject to a tax imposed by the Organization for its benefit on salaries and emoluments paid by the Organization. From the date on which this tax is applied such salaries and emoluments shall be exempt from United Kingdom income tax, but the Government shall retain the right to take these salaries and emoluments into account for the purpose of assessing the amount of taxation to be applied to income from other sources.

(2) In the event that the Organization operates a system for the payment of pensions and annuities to its former Executive Directors and staff members, the provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article shall not apply to such pensions and annuities.

Article 21

The Executive Director and the staff members of the Organization, if they are not citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies or permanently resident in the United Kingdom, shall with respect to services rendered for the Organization be exempt from the provisions of any social security scheme established by the law of the United Kingdom.

Article 22

(1) The privileges and immunities accorded in this Agreement to the Executive Director, staff members and experts of the Organization are provided solely to ensure in all circumstances the unimpeded functioning of the Organization and the complete independence of the persons to whom they are accorded.

(2) The Executive Director has the right and the duty to waive such immunity when he considers that such immunity is preventing the carrying out of justice and when it is possible to dispense with the immunity without prejudicing the interests of the Organization. In respect of the Executive Director, the Council may waive such immunity.

Article 23

(1) The Organization shall co-operate at all times with the appropriate authorities in order to facilitate the proper administration of justice, to ensure the observance of police regulations and regulations concerning the handling of inflammable material, public health, labour inspection and other similar national legislation, and to prevent any abuse of the privileges, immunities and facilities provided for in this Agreement, but the right of the Government to take all precautionary measures in the interests of its security shall not be prejudiced by any provision in this Agreement.

(2) Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the reasonable application by the appropriate authorities of measures for the protection of the premises of the Organization against fire.

Article 24

Where the Organization enters into contracts (other than contracts concluded in accordance with staff regulations) with a person resident in the United Kingdom or a body incorporated or having its principal place of business in the United Kingdom and embodies the terms of the contract in a formal instrument, that instrument shall include an arbitration clause whereby any disputes arising out of the interpretation or execution of the contract, unless the Organization waives its immunity in regard to the dispute, may at the request of either party be submitted to private arbitration.

Article 25

The Organization shall, at the instance of the Government, submit to an international Arbitration Tribunal any dispute (other than a dispute concerning the interpretation or application of the International Sugar Agreement 1968 or any succeeding Agreement) :

- (a) arising out of damage caused by the Organization;
- (b) involving any other non-contractual responsibility of the Organization;
- or
- (c) involving the Executive Director, a staff member or expert of the Organization, and in which the person concerned can claim immunity from jurisdiction under this Agreement, if this immunity is not waived.

Article 26

(1) The Organization shall from time to time send to the Government a list of all staff members indicating in each case whether or not the individual is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies or permanently resident in the United Kingdom. The Organization may inform the Government of the appointment of staff members individually for addition to the list.

(2) The Government shall issue to all staff members, on notification of their appointment, a card bearing the photograph of the holder and identifying him as a staff member. This card shall be accepted by the appropriate authorities as evidence of identity and appointment.

Article 27

At the request either of the Government or of the Organization consultations shall take place respecting the implementation, modification or extension of this Agreement. Any understanding, modification or extension may be given effect by an Exchange of Letters between a representative of the Government and the Executive Director (after approval by the Organization).

Article 28

Any dispute between the Government and the Organization concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement or any question affecting the relations between the Government and the Organization which is not settled by negotiation or by some other agreed method shall be referred for final decision to a panel of three arbitrators. One of these arbitrators shall be chosen by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs, one shall be chosen by the Executive Director, and the third, who shall be the Chairman of the Tribunal, shall be chosen by the first two arbitrators. Should the first two arbitrators fail to agree upon the third within one year of their own appointment, the third arbitrator, at the request of the Government or of the Organization shall be chosen by the President of the International Court of Justice.

Article 29

(1) This Agreement shall enter into force on signature.

(2) This Agreement may be terminated by agreement between the Government and the Organization. In the event of the Headquarters of the Organization being moved from the territory of the United Kingdom, this Agreement shall, after the period reasonably required for such transfer and the disposal of the property of the Organization in the United Kingdom, cease to be in force.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the respective representatives have signed this Agreement.

DONE in duplicate at London this 29th day of May, 1969, in the English language, which shall be authoritative.
