EXCHANGE OF NOTES CONSTITUTING AN AGREEMENT¹
BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND BARBADOS FOR THE RECIPROCAL GRANTING OF AUTHORIZATIONS TO PERMIT LICENSED AMATEUR RADIO OPERATORS OF EITHER COUNTRY TO OPERATE THEIR STATIONS IN THE OTHER COUNTRY

I

No. 9130

The Ministry of External Affairs of Barbados presents its compliments to the Embassy of the United States of America and has the honour to refer to conversations between representatives of the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Barbados relating to the possibility of concluding an agreement between the two Governments with a view to the reciprocal granting of authorizations to permit licensed amateur radio operators of either country to operate their stations in the other country, in accordance with the provisions of Article 41 of the international Radio Regulations, Geneva, 1959.² It is proposed that an agreement with respect to this matter be concluded as follows:

- (i) An individual who is licensed by his Government as an amateur radio operator and who operates an amateur radio station licensed by such Government shall be permitted by the other Government, on a reciprocal basis and subject to the conditions stated below, to operate such station in the territory of such other Government.
- (ii) The individual who is licensed by his Government as an amateur radio operator shall, before being permitted to operate his station as provided for in paragraph (i), obtain from the appropriate administrative agency of the other Government an authorization for that purpose.
- (iii) The appropriate administrative agency of each Government may issue an authorization, as prescribed in paragraph (ii), under such conditions and terms as it may prescribe, including the right of cancellation at the convenience of the issuing Government at any time.

¹ Came into force on 12 September, 1968, the date of the note in reply, in accordance with the provisions of the said notes.

² United States of America: Treaties and Other International Acts Series 4893.

Upon the receipt of a reply note from the Embassy of the United States of America indicating the concurrence of the Government of the United States of America, it will be considered that this note and the reply note constitute an agreement between the two Governments, such agreement to be in force as of the date of the reply note and to be subject to termination by either Government giving six months' notice, in writing, of its intention to terminate.

The Ministry of External Affairs of Barbados avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Embassy of the United States of America the assurances of its highest consideration.

No. 103

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of External Affairs of Barbados and has the honor to refer to the Ministry's note No. 9130 of September 10, 1968, in which reference is made to conversations between representatives of the Government of the United States of America and representatives of the Government of Barbados relating to the possibility of concluding an agreement between the two Governments with a view to the reciprocal granting of authorizations to permit licensed amateur radio operators of either country to operate their stations in the other country, in accordance with the provisions of Article 41 of the international Radio Regulations, Geneva, 1959.

Pursuant to section 303 (1) (2) and 310 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934 as amended 47 U.S.C. 303 (1) (2), 310 (a), the Government of the United States of America is prepared to conclude an agreement with respect to this matter as follows:

[See note I]

In accordance with the suggestion made in the Ministry's note, that note and this reply note indicating the concurrence of the Government of the United States of America are considered as constituting an agreement between the two Governments, such agreement to be in force as of the date of this reply note and to be subject of termination by either Government giving six months' notice, in writing, of its intention to terminate.

The Embassy of the United States of America avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of External Affairs of Barbados the assurances of its highest consideration.
