Sir,

With reference to the Procès-Verbal signed at Rome on 27 February 1964 by the Representatives of the Austrian and Italian Aeronautical Authorities, I have the honour to inform you that the competent Austrian authorities consider it desirable to conclude an agreement in the following terms for the purpose of facilitating non-scheduled civil air traffic between Austria and Italy:

1. Civil aircraft registered in one of the two countries shall not be required to request authorization to fly over the territory of the other country and to land there, provided that they observe the provisions governing air traffic in the territory of the respective countries, in the following cases:

- (a) Non-commercial overflights and landings carried out by private aircraft;
- (b) Overflights and landings carried out in cases of disaster or emergency;
- (c) Overflights and landings of an occasional nature, provided that the air-taxi has a seating capacity of not more than six passengers.

2. The said overflights and landings may be carried out after notification has been given in accordance with the flight safety regulations contained in the above-mentioned provisions concerning air traffic.

3. Where one of the above-mentioned flights involves several landings, the first and last landings in the territory of the other Contracting State must be made on airfields with frontiers and customs services.

¹ Came into force on 1 October 1965, the first day of the second month following the exchange of the said notes, in accordance with their provisions.

If the Italian authorities agree to the above, this Note and your affirmative reply will be regarded as an agreement which will enter into force on the first day of the second month following this exchange of Notes.
