(f) Members of the United Nations Secretariat.

Article III

SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED BY THE UNITED NATIONS

1. The United Nations shall provide the following services in connexion with the seminar :

- (a) The services of members of the Division of Human Rights of the United Nations Secretariat, as required;
- (b) The preparation of background papers which will be used as the basis for discussion at the seminar;
- (c) The translation of the background papers into English, French, Russian and Spanish, as required;
- (d) The preparation of the draft report of the seminar and the reproduction and distribution of the final report.

2. The United Nations shall also pay for the travel expenses and subsistence allowance of not more than one participant from each of the participating countries (see article II, 1 (a) above), with the exception of the host country.

Article IV

CO-OPERATION OF THE GOVERNMENT IN THE SEMINAR

1. The Government shall act as host to the seminar.

2. The Government shall nominate officials as liaison officer and assistant liaison officers between the United Nations and the Government, who shall be responsible for making the necessary arrangements concerning the contributions of the Government described in paragraph 3 below.

3. The Government shall provide and defray the costs of :

- (a) Appropriate premises for the holding of the seminar;
- (b) Appropriate premises for the offices, and for the other working areas of the bureau and secretariat of the seminar, the liaison officer and the local personnel mentioned below;
- (c) Adequate furniture and equipment for the premises referred to in (a) and (b) above, to be installed prior to the seminar, and the maintenance of such premises for the duration of the seminar;
- (d) Simultaneous interpretation and amplification equipment as well as tape recorders and tapes, and technicians to operate them, for the conference room; languages used will be English, French, Russian and Spanish;

- (e) The services of eight simultaneous interpreters for interpretation from and into English, French, Russian and Spanish;
- (f) Three or more translators to translate the draft report from English into French, Russian and Spanish;
- (g) The local administrative personnel required for the proper conduct of the seminar, including reproduction and distribution of working papers and other seminar documents, the personnel to include a documents officer, a conference officer, one English-French and two English secretary-stenographers and four copy-typists to work in English, French, Russian and Spanish; information reception clerks, mimeograph operators, collators, messengers and security personnel, as appropriate; the services of the secretary-stenographers, copy-typists, mimeograph operators and collators shall be available one week in advance of the seminar;
- (h) Postal, telegraph and telephone facilities for official work in connexion with the seminar; office supplies and equipment required for the proper conduct of the seminar, including English, French, Russian and Spanish keyboard typewriters, mimeograph machines, mimeograph stencils and paper needed for reproduction of technical papers and other documents;
- (i) Customs clearance and transportation between port of entry and Istanbul for documentation and supplies for the seminar;
- (j) Local transportation for participants and United Nations staff between their hotels and the site of the seminar and for other seminar purposes.

4. The Government shall in co-operation with the United Nations Information Service make all appropriate arrangements to ensure adequate information coverage of the seminar through the appropriate news media. For this purpose it shall inter alia nominate an information officer to assist in liaison with local press, radio and film media.
