(2) Where by reason of the provisions of paragraph (1) above an individual is a resident of both territories, his status shall be determined in accordance with the following rules—

(5) A person acting in one of the territories on behalf of an enterprise of the other territory—other than an agent of an independent status to whom paragraph (6) applies—shall be deemed to be a permanent establishment in the first-mentioned territory—

(a) if he has, and habitually exercises in that first-mentioned territory, an authority to conclude contracts in the name of the enterprise, unless his activities are limited to the purchase of goods or merchandise for the enterprise; or

(b) if he maintains in that first-mentioned territory a stock of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise from which he habitually fills orders on behalf of the enterprise.

(6) An enterprise of one of the territories shall not be deemed to have a permanent establishment in the other territory merely because it carries on business in that other territory through a broker, a general commission agent or any other agent of an independent status, where such persons are acting in the ordinary course of their business.

(7) The fact that a company which is a resident of one of the territories controls or is controlled by a company which is a resident of the other territory, or which carries on business in that other territory (whether through a permanent establishment or otherwise), shall not of itself constitute either company a permanent establishment of the other.

Article 5

(2) (a) The term “immovable property” shall, subject to sub-paragraph (b) below, be defined in accordance with the laws of the territory in which the property in question is situated;

(4) The provisions of paragraphs (1) to (3) of this article shall also apply to the income from immovable property of an enterprise and to income from immovable property used for the performance of professional services.

Article 6

(1) Industrial or commercial profits of a United Kingdom enterprise shall be exempt from Canadian tax unless the enterprise carries on business in Canada through a permanent establishment situated therein. If the enterprise carries on business as aforesaid, tax may be imposed by Canada on the industrial or commercial profits of the enterprise but only on so much of them as is attributable to that permanent establishment.

(2) Industrial or commercial profits of a Canadian enterprise shall be exempt from United Kingdom tax unless the enterprise carries on business in the United Kingdom through a permanent establishment situated therein. If the enterprise carries on business as aforesaid, tax may be imposed by the United Kingdom on the industrial or commercial profits of the enterprise but only on so much of them as is attributable to that permanent establishment.

(3) Where an enterprise of one of the territories carries on business in the other territory through a permanent establishment situated therein, there shall be attributed to that establishment the industrial or commercial profits which it might be expected to make if it were an independent enterprise engaged in the same or similar activities under the same or similar conditions and dealing at arm's length with the enterprise of which it is a permanent establishment.

(4) In determining the industrial or commercial profits of an enterprise of one of the territories which are taxable in the other territory in accordance with the previous paragraphs of this article, there shall be allowed as deductions all expenses of the enterprise (including executive and general administrative expenses) which would be deductible if the permanent establishment were an independent enterprise and which are reasonably connected with the profits so taxable, whether incurred in the territory in which the permanent establishment is situated or elsewhere.

(5) No profits shall be attributed to a permanent establishment by reason of the mere purchase by that permanent establishment of goods or merchandise for the enterprise.

(6) The term "industrial or commercial profits" means income derived by an enterprise from the conduct of a trade or business, including income derived by an enterprise from the furnishing of services of employees or other personnel, but it does not include dividends, interest, royalties (as defined in articles 9, 10 and 11) or rents other than dividends, interest, royalties or rents effectively connected with a trade or business carried on through a permanent establishment which an enterprise of one of the territories has in the other territory; nor does the term include remuneration for personal (including professional) services.

(7) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this article shall affect any of the provisions of the law of the United Kingdom relating to the liability to tax of a life assurance company not having its head office in the United Kingdom in respect of income from the investments of its life assurance fund, being provisions which (except in so far as they were rendered ineffective by virtue of article III of the Agreement between Canada and the United Kingdom with respect to taxes on income signed at Ottawa on 6 December, 1965¹) were in force on the date of signature of this Agreement, or which, if they have been modified since that date, have been modified only in minor respects so as not to affect their general character.

Article 7

A resident of one of the territories shall be exempt from tax in the other territory on profits from the operation of ships or aircraft in international traffic.

Article 8

Where—

- (a) an enterprise of one of the territories participates directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of the other territory; or

(b) the same persons participate directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of one of the territories and an enterprise of the other territory; and, in either case conditions are made or imposed between the two enterprises in their commercial or financial relations which differ from those which would be made between independent enterprises, then any profits which would but for those conditions, have accrued to one of the enterprises but, by reason of those conditions, have not so accrued, may be included in the profits of that enterprise and taxed accordingly.

Article 9

(1) The United Kingdom tax on dividends derived from a company which is a resident of the United Kingdom and which are paid after 5 April, 1966 and beneficially owned by a resident of Canada shall not exceed 15 per cent of the gross amount of the dividends.

(2) Dividends derived from a company which is a resident of the United Kingdom and which are paid before 6 April, 1966 and which are beneficially owned by a resident of Canada shall be exempt from United Kingdom surtax.

(3) The Canadian tax on dividends derived from a company which is a resident of Canada and which are beneficially owned by a resident of the United Kingdom shall not exceed 15 per cent of the gross amount of the dividends.

(4) (a) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) and (3) of this article where a company which is a resident of one of the territories satisfies the condition prescribed in sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, tax shall not be imposed in that territory on dividends which that company pays after 5 April, 1966 to a resident of the other territory, who is the beneficial owner thereof, provided the government of the other territory does not impose on the profits attributable to a permanent establishment of the company in that other territory any tax which is in addition to the tax which would be chargeable on those profits if they were the profits of a company which was a resident of the territory of that Government;

(b) the condition referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph is that the company derived not less than 90 per cent of its income for each of its last three accounting periods or taxation years before the dividend was paid (or in the case of a company having fewer than three accounting periods or taxation years, for each accounting period or taxation year thereof before that date) from a business carried on by it in the other territory.

(5) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (4) of article 10 and of paragraph (4) of article 11 of this Agreement—

(a) the term “dividends” in the case of the United Kingdom includes any item which under the law of the United Kingdom is treated as a distribution of a company;

(b) the term “dividends” in the case of Canada includes any item which under the law of Canada is treated as a dividend.

(6) The provisions of paragraphs (1) (2) and (4) of this article shall not apply if the owner of the dividends, being a resident of Canada, has in the United Kingdom a permanent establishment and the holding giving rise to the dividends is effectively connected with a trade carried on through such permanent establishment and, in the case of a company, the trade is such that a profit on the sale of the holding would be a trading receipt.

(7) The provisions of paragraphs (3) and (4) of this article shall not apply if the owner of the dividends, being a resident of the United Kingdom, has in Canada a permanent establishment and the holding giving rise to the dividends is effectively connected with a business carried on through such permanent establishment and, in the case of a company, the business is such that a profit on the sale of the holding would be included in computing its income.

(8) Where a company which is a resident of one of the territories derives profits or income from sources within the other territory, the Government of that other territory shall not impose any form of taxation on dividends paid by the company to persons not resident in that other territory, or any tax in the nature of an undistributed profits tax on undistributed profits of the company, by reason of the fact that those dividends or undistributed profits represent, in whole or in part, profits or income so derived.

(9) (a) If a resident of Canada does not bear Canadian tax on dividends derived from a company which is a resident of the United Kingdom and owns 10 per cent or more of the class of shares in respect of which the dividends are paid, then neither paragraphs (1) or (2) shall apply to the dividends to the extent that they can have been paid only out of profits which the company paying the dividends earned or other income which it received in a period ending twelve months or more before the relevant date. For the purposes of this sub-paragraph the term "relevant date" means the date on which the beneficial owner of the dividends became the owner of 10 per cent or more of the class of shares referred to above;

(b) where a company which has been incorporated in Canada after the coming into force of this Agreement has its place of effective management in the United Kingdom, paragraph (8) shall not apply to dividends paid by that company;

(c) this paragraph shall not apply if in the case of sub-paragraph (a) the shares were acquired, or in the case of sub-paragraph (b) the choice of the place of effective management was made for bona fide commercial reasons and not primarily for the purpose of securing the benefit of this article.

Article 10

(1) The United Kingdom tax on interest (on bonds, securities, debentures, or on any other form of indebtedness) derived and beneficially owned by a resident of Canada shall not exceed 15 per cent of the gross amount of the interest.

(2) The Canadian tax on interest (on bonds, securities, debentures, or on any other form of indebtedness) derived and beneficially owned by a resident of the United Kingdom shall not exceed 15 per cent of the gross amount of the interest.

(3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) of this article shall not apply if the recipient of the interest, being a resident of one of the territories, has in the other territory a permanent establishment and the indebtedness giving rise to the interest is effectively connected with a trade or business carried on through that permanent establishment.

(4) Any provision in the law of either of the territories relating only to interest paid to a non-resident company shall not operate so as to require such interest paid to a company which is a resident of the other territory to be treated as a distribution of the company paying such interest. The preceding sentence shall not apply to interest paid to a company which is a resident of one of the territories in which more than 50 per cent of the voting power is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a person or persons resident in the other territory.

(5) The provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this article shall not apply to interest where the beneficial owner of the interest—

(a) is not subject to tax in respect thereof in the territory of which it is a resident; and

(b) sells (or makes a contract to sell) the holding from which the interest is derived within three months of the date on which such beneficial owner acquired that holding.

(6) Where, owing to a special relationship between the payer and the recipient, or between both of them and some other person, the amount of the interest paid exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and recipient in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this article shall apply only to the last-mentioned amount.

Article 11

(1) Copyright royalties and other like payments in respect of the production or reproduction of any literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work (but not including rents or royalties in respect of motion picture films and films or video tapes for use in connection with television) which are derived and beneficially owned by a resident of Canada, shall be exempt from tax in the United Kingdom.

The United Kingdom tax on royalties, other than royalties to which the preceding sentence applies, and which are derived and beneficially owned by a resident of Canada shall not exceed 10 per cent of the gross amount of the royalties.

(2) Copyright royalties and other like payments in respect of the production or reproduction of any literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work (but not including rents or royalties in respect of motion picture films and films or video tapes for use in connection with television) which are derived and beneficially owned by a resident of the United Kingdom, shall be exempt from tax in Canada.

The Canadian tax on royalties, other than royalties to which the preceding sentence applies, and which are derived and beneficially owned by a resident of the United Kingdom shall not exceed 10 per cent of the gross amount of the royalties.

(3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) of this article shall not apply if the recipient of the royalties, being a resident of one of the territories, has in the other territory a permanent establishment and the right or property giving rise to the royalties is effectively connected with a trade or business carried on through that permanent establishment.

(4) Royalties paid by a company which is a resident of one of the territories to a resident of the other territory shall not be treated as a distribution of or a dividend from such a company. The preceding sentence shall not apply to royalties paid to a company which is a resident of one of the territories where (a) the same persons participate directly or indirectly in the management or control of the company paying the royalties, and (b) more than 50 per cent of the voting power in the company deriving the royalties is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a person or persons resident in the other territory.

(5) The term "royalties" as used in this article means any royalties, rentals or other amounts paid as consideration for the use of, or the right to use copyrights, patents, designs or models, plans, secret processes or formulae, trademarks or other like property or rights, or for industrial, commercial or scientific equipment, or for information concerning industrial, commercial or scientific experience, and includes any rental or like payment in respect of motion picture films and films or video tapes for use in connection with television, but does not include royalties or other amounts paid in respect of the operation of mines or quarries or of the extraction or removal of natural resources.

(6) Where, owing to a special relationship between the payer and the recipient, or between both of them and some other person, the amount of the royalties paid exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and the recipient in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this article shall apply only to the last-mentioned amount.

Article 12

(1) Gains from the alienation of immovable property, as defined in paragraph (2) of article 5, may be taxed in the territory in which such property is situated.

(2) Gains from the alienation of movable property forming part of the business property of a permanent establishment which an enterprise of one of the territories has in the other territory or of movable property pertaining to a fixed base available to a resident of one of the territories in the other territory for the purpose of performing professional services, including such gains from the alienation of such a permanent establishment (alone or together with the whole enterprise) or of such a fixed base, may be taxed in the other territory. However, gains derived by a resident of one of the territories from the alienation of ships and aircraft operated in international traffic and movable property pertaining to the operation of such ships and aircraft shall be taxable only in that territory.

(3) Gains from alienation of any property other than those mentioned in paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be taxable only in the territory of which the alienator is a resident.

Article 13

Income derived by a resident of one of the territories in respect of professional services or other independent activities of a similar character shall be subjected to tax only in that territory unless he has a fixed base regularly available to him in the other territory for the purpose of performing his activities. If he has such a fixed base, such part of that income as is attributable to that base may be taxed in that other territory.

Article 14

- (c) the remuneration is not deducted from the profits of a permanent establishment or a fixed base which the employer has in the other territory.

(3) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this article, remuneration in respect of an employment exercised aboard a ship or aircraft in international traffic may be taxed in the territory in which the place of effective management of the enterprise operating the ship or aircraft is situated.

(4) In relation to remuneration of a director of a company derived from the company the preceding provisions of this article shall apply as if the remuneration were remuneration of an employee in respect of an employment, and as if references to employers were references to the company.

Article 15

(3) Subject to the proviso to paragraph (1), any pension paid by one of the Contracting Governments to the surviving spouse or other surviving dependant of an individual who died before the relevant date, in respect of services rendered to it in the discharge of governmental functions by that individual, shall be exempt from tax in the territory of the other Contracting Government if—

- (a) that spouse or other dependant was a resident of the other territory on the relevant date; and
- (b) that pension would have been exempt from tax in that territory if article VIII of the Agreement between Canada and the United Kingdom with respect to taxes on income signed in London on 5 June, 1946 were in force.

(4) Subject to the proviso to paragraph (1), any pension paid by one of the Contracting Governments to the surviving spouse or other surviving dependant of an individual who died after the relevant date in respect of services rendered to it in the discharge of governmental functions by that individual shall be exempt from tax in the territory of the other Contracting Government if it relates to a pension paid to that individual which was exempt from tax in the territory of the other Contracting Government by virtue of paragraph (2).

(5) In this article the term “relevant date” means, in relation to a pension paid to a resident of Canada, 1 January, 1965 and, in relation to a pension paid to a resident of the United Kingdom, 6 April, 1965.

(2) This article shall not apply to payments in respect of services rendered in connection with any trade or business carried on by either of the Contracting Governments for purposes of profit.

- (b) to any person for the benefit of, or for the maintenance or education of, a person under twenty-one years of age.

Article 21

(1) Subject to the provisions of the law of the United Kingdom regarding the allowance as a credit against United Kingdom tax of tax payable in a territory outside the United Kingdom (which shall not affect the general principle hereof)—

- (a) Canadian tax payable under the laws of Canada and in accordance with this Agreement, whether directly or by deduction, on profits, income or chargeable gains from sources within Canada, (excluding in the case of a dividend, tax payable in respect of the profits out of which the dividend is paid) shall be allowed as a credit against any United Kingdom tax computed by reference to the same profits, income or chargeable gains by reference to which the Canadian tax is computed; and

- (b) in the case of a dividend paid by a company which is a resident of Canada to a company which is resident in the United Kingdom and which controls directly or indirectly at least 10 per cent of the voting power in the Canadian company, the credit shall take into account (in addition to any Canadian tax creditable under (a)) the Canadian tax payable by the company in respect of the profits out of which such dividend is paid.

Provided that sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph shall apply only for so long as Canada gives a deduction in computing taxable income for dividends received from a company which is a resident of the United Kingdom in which the recipient Canadian company owns more than 25 per cent of the voting shares.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the law of Canada regarding the deduction from tax payable in Canada of tax paid in a territory outside Canada (which shall not affect the general principle hereof), United Kingdom tax payable in respect of income from sources within the United Kingdom shall be deducted from any Canadian tax payable in respect of that income. Where such income is a dividend paid before 6 April, 1966, by a company which is a resident of the United Kingdom, the deduction shall take into account any United Kingdom income tax appropriate to the dividend.

(3) For the purposes of this article profits or remuneration for personal (including professional) services performed in one of the territories shall be deemed to be income from sources within the territory, and the services of an individual whose services are wholly or mainly performed in ships or aircraft operated in international traffic by a resident of one of the territories shall be deemed to be performed in that territory.

(2) The taxation on a permanent establishment which an enterprise of one of the territories has in the other territory shall not be less favourably levied in that territory than the taxation levied on enterprise of that other territory carrying on the same activities.

(3) Nothing in this article shall be construed—

- (a) as obliging either of the Contracting Governments to grant to individuals not resident in its territory those personal allowances and reliefs for tax purposes which are by law available only to individuals who are so resident;
- (b) as restricting the right of either Contracting Government to tax in accordance with paragraphs (1) or (3) of article 9 dividends derived by a resident of the other territory;
- (c) as preventing the Government of one of the territories from imposing on the profits attributable to a permanent establishment in that territory of a company which is a resident of the other territory, tax in addition to the tax which would be chargeable on those profits if they were the profits of a company which was a resident of the territory of that Government, provided that any additional tax so imposed shall not be at a rate exceeding 15 per cent of the amount of those profits after deducting therefrom all other taxes chargeable on income or profits in that territory.

(4) In this article the term “taxation” means taxes which are the subject of this Agreement.

Article 23

In determining for the purpose of United Kingdom tax whether a company is a close company, the term “recognised stock exchange” shall include any stock exchange prescribed for the purposes of the Canadian Income Tax Act.

Article 24

(1) Where a taxpayer considers that the action of the taxation authorities of the Contracting Government has resulted or will result in taxation contrary to the provisions of this Agreement, he shall be entitled to present his case to the Government of the territory of or in which he is a national or resident. Should the taxpayer's claim be deemed worthy of consideration, the taxation authorities of the Government to which the claim is made shall endeavour to come to an agreement with the taxation authorities of the other Government with a view to a satisfactory adjustment.

(2) The taxation authorities of the Contracting Governments may communicate with each other directly to implement the provisions of this Agreement and to assure its consistent interpretation and application. In particular, the taxation authorities may consult together to endeavour to resolve disputes arising out of the application of paragraph (3) of article 6 or article 8 or the determination of the source of particular items of income.

Article 25

The taxation authorities of the Contracting Governments shall exchange such information (being information which is at their disposal under their respective taxation laws in the normal course of administration) as is necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Agreement or for the prevention of fraud or for the administration of statutory provisions against legal avoidance in relation to the taxes which are the subject of this Agreement. Any information so exchanged shall be treated as secret and shall not be disclosed to persons other than persons (including a court or administrative tribunal) concerned with the assessment, collection, enforcement or prosecution in respect of the taxes which are the subject of this Agreement. No information as aforesaid shall be exchanged which would disclose any trade, business, industrial or professional secret or trade process.

Article 26

(1) This Agreement may be extended, either in its entirety or with modifications, to any territory for whose international relations either of the Contracting Governments is responsible, and which imposes taxes substantially similar in character to those which are the subject of this Agreement, and any such extension shall take effect from such date and subject to such modifications and conditions (including conditions as to termination) as may be specified and agreed between the Contracting Governments in letters to be exchanged for this purpose.

(2) The termination of this Agreement under article 28 shall, unless otherwise expressly agreed by both Contracting Governments, terminate the application of this Agreement to any territory to which it has been extended under this article.

Article 27

(1) This Agreement shall come into force on the date when the last of all such things shall have been done in the United Kingdom and Canada as are necessary to give the Agreement the force of law in the United Kingdom and Canada respectively, and shall thereupon have effect—

(a) in the United Kingdom—

- (i) in respect of income tax for any year of assessment beginning on or after 6 April, 1965;
- (ii) in respect of surtax, for any year of assessment beginning on or after 6 April, 1964;
- (iii) in respect of profits tax, for any chargeable accounting period beginning on or after 1 January, 1965 and for the unexpired portion of any chargeable accounting period current at that date;
- (iv) in respect of capital gains tax for any year of assessment beginning on or after 6 April, 1965; and
- (v) in respect of corporation tax for any financial year beginning on or after 1 April, 1964;

(b) in Canada—

- (i) in respect of tax withheld at the source on amounts paid or credited to non-residents on or after 1 January, 1965;
- (ii) in respect of other Canadian tax, for the 1965 taxation year and subsequent years.

(2) The Contracting Governments shall, as soon as possible, inform one another in writing of the date when the last of all such things shall have been done as are necessary to give the Agreement the force of law in the United Kingdom and Canada respectively. The date specified by the last Government to fulfil this requirement, being the date on which the Agreement shall come into force in accordance with paragraph (1), shall be confirmed in writing by the Government so notified.

(3) The Agreement between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Government of Canada signed at Ottawa on 6 December, 1965 shall not have effect in relation to any tax for any period for which this Agreement has effect as respects that tax.

(4) Where, however, any greater relief from tax would have been afforded by any provision of the Agreement signed at Ottawa on 6 December, 1965 than is due under this Agreement, any such provision as aforesaid shall continue to have effect—

- (a) in the United Kingdom for any year of assessment, chargeable accounting period or financial year;
 - (b) in Canada for any taxation year;
- beginning before the entry into force of this Agreement.

Article 28

This Agreement shall continue in effect indefinitely but either of the Contracting Governments may, on or before the thirtieth day of June in any calendar year after the year 1967, give notice of termination to the other Contracting Government and, in such event, this Agreement shall cease to be effective—

(a) in the United Kingdom—

(i) in respect of income tax (including surtax) and capital gains tax for any year of assessment beginning on or after 6 April, in the calendar year next following that in which the notice is given;

(ii) in respect of other Canadian tax for any taxation year ending in or after the calendar year next following that in which the notice is given.
