AGREEMENT<sup>1</sup> BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF ITALY

The United Nations and the Government of the Republic of Italy (hereinafter called "the Government"), desiring to give effect to the provisions of General Assembly resolution 926 (X)<sup>2</sup> concerning the programme of advisory services in human rights, have agreed as follows:

Article I. UNITED NATIONS SEMINAR ON YOUTH AND HUMAN RIGHTS

A United Nations seminar on youth and human rights will be held at San Remo, Italy, from 28 August to 10 September 1973 inclusive.

Article II. PARTICIPATION IN THE SEMINAR

1. Participation in the seminar shall be open to the following upon invitation or designation of the Secretary-General:

- (a) Participants and alternates nominated by the Governments of countries invited to the seminar;
- (b) Observers from other States Members of the United Nations;
- (c) Representatives from the specialized agencies of the United Nations;
- (d) One representative from the United Nations Institute for Training and Research;
- (e) Observers from the following intergovernmental regional organizations:
  - (i) Council of Europe;
  - (ii) League of Arab States;
  - (iii) Organization of African Unity;
  - (iv) Organization of American States;
- (f) Observers from non-governmental organizations in consultative relationship with the Economic and Social Council whose work is related to the subject of the seminar;
- (g) Members of the United Nations Secretariat.

2. The Government, as host to the seminar, may invite a few eminent persons who are particularly interested in the subject of the seminar.

Article III. SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED BY THE UNITED NATIONS

1. The United Nations shall provide the following services in connexion with the seminar;

- (a) The services of members of the Division of Human Rights of the United Nations Secretariat, as required;
- (b) The preparation of background papers;
- (c) The translation of the background papers into English, French, Russian and Spanish, as required;
- (d) The preparation of the draft report of the seminar and the reproduction and distribution of the final report.

2. The United Nations shall also pay for the travel expenses and subsistence allowance of not more than one participant from each of the participating countries (see article II, paragraph 1 (a) above), with the exception of the host country.

Article IV. CO-OPERATION OF THE GOVERNMENT IN THE SEMINAR

1. The Government shall act as host to the seminar. Under the responsibility of the Government, the International Institute of Humanitarian Law of San Remo shall make the technical arrangements.

2. The Government shall nominate officials as liaison officer and assistant liaison officers with the United Nations, who shall be responsible for making the necessary arrangements concerning the contribution of the Government described in paragraph 3 below.

3. The Government shall provide and defray the costs of:

- (a) Appropriate premises for the holding of the seminar;
- (b) Appropriate premises for the offices and other working areas of the secretariat of the seminar, the liaison officers and the local personnel mentioned below;
- (c) Adequate furniture and equipment for the premises referred to in (a) and (b) above, to be installed prior to the opening of the seminar, and the maintenance of such premises for the duration of the seminar;
- (d) Simultaneous interpretation and amplification equipment as well as tape recorders and tapes, and technicians to operate them, for the conference room; the languages used will be English, French, Russian and Spanish;
- (e) The services of eight simultaneous interpreters for interpretation into English, French, Russian and Spanish;
- (f) The services of at least three translators to translate the draft report into English, French, Russian and Spanish;
- (g) The local administrative personnel required for the proper conduct of the seminar, including reproduction and distribution of working papers and other seminar documents, the personnel to include a documents officer, a conference officer, one English-French and one English and one French secretary-stenographer and four copy-typists to work in English, French, Russian and Spanish; information-reception clerks, mimeograph operators, collators, messengers and security personnel, as appropriate; the services of the copy-typists, mimeograph operators and collators shall be available, as necessary, one week in advance of the opening of the seminar;

- (h) Postal, telephone and telegraph facilities for official work in connexion with the seminar; office supplies and equipment required for the proper conduct of the seminar, including English, French, Russian and Spanish keyboard typewriters; mimeograph machines, mimeograph stencils and paper needed for reproduction of technical papers and other documents;
- (i) Customs clearance and transportation for documentation and supplies for the seminar between the port of entry and San Remo;
- (j) Local transportation for participants and staff provided by the United Nations between their hotels and the site of the seminar and for other seminar purposes.

4. The Government shall make all the necessary arrangements, in co-operation with the United Nations Office of Public Information to ensure that the seminar is given adequate publicity through the various information media. To that end, it shall, inter alia, appoint an information officer to be responsible locally for promoting liaison with the press, the radio and the cinema.

Article V. FACILITIES, PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

1. The Convention on the privileges and immunities of the United Nations<sup>1</sup> shall be applicable in respect of the seminar. Accordingly, officials of the United Nations performing functions in connexion with the seminar shall enjoy the privileges and immunities provided under articles V and VII of the said Convention.

2. Officials of the specialized agencies attending the seminar in pursuance of paragraph 1 (c) of article II of this Agreement shall be accorded the privileges and immunities provided under articles VI and VIII of the Convention on the privileges and immunities of the specialized agencies.<sup>2</sup>

3. Without prejudice to the provisions of the Convention on the privileges and immunities of the United Nations, all participants and all persons performing functions in connexion with the seminar shall enjoy such privileges and immunities, facilities and courtesies as are necessary for the independent exercise of their functions in connexion with the seminar.

4. All participants in the seminar and all persons performing functions in connexion with the seminar who are not nationals of Italy shall have the right of entry into and exit from Italy. They shall be granted facilities for speedy travel. Visas and entry permits, where required, shall be granted free of charge, and as soon as possible, at the latest two weeks prior to the opening of the seminar, when applications have been submitted at least two and one half weeks prior to that date. When the visa application has not been submitted at least two and one half weeks prior to the opening of the seminar, the visa shall be issued at the latest within three days following the receipt of the application. Exit permits shall be issued, where required, free of charge and as soon as possible, in any case, at the latest three days prior to the closing of the seminar.
