AGREEMENT¹ ON CULTURAL COOPERATION BETWEEN THE KINGDOM OF BELGIUM AND THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA

The Government of the Kingdom of Belgium and the Government of the Republic of Indonesia,

Desirous of strengthening the existing bonds of friendship between the two countries through cooperation and mutual exchange in the field of education, science and culture, with due regard for the relevant statutory regulations of each country,

Have decided to conclude this Agreement and for this purpose have agreed on the following :

Article 1. The two Contracting Parties, based on the principles of mutual respect for the sovereignty, equal rights and non-interference in the internal affairs of their respective countries, shall endeavour to the best of their ability to promote and to develop the relations between the two countries in the fields of education, science, art, literature and sport, with the objective to increase the knowledge on their respective countries, cultural patterns and spiritual activities.

Article 2. The two Contracting Parties favour the promotion of mutual co-operation between universities, schools and institutes for higher education, institutes for technical, secondary, teacher's and art education, laboratories for the promotion of science, the museums and libraries, scientific organisations, art and paedagogical associations of the two countries.

Each Contracting Party in its own country gives all possible facilities to scholars, research workers and scientific missions of the other contracting party, with the aim to facilitate their scientific research works, in particular the admittance to libraries, archives, museum collections and eventually to exploration sites for archaeological excavations.

Article 3. The Contracting Parties favour the promotion, in their respective territories, of visits and travels by teaching personnel or officials specialised in educational matters of the other Party for informative educational purposes.

Article 4. The two Contracting Parties facilitate and promote whenever possible the mutual exchange of professors from different educational branches research-workers, students and trainees, technical experts or other persons working in the field of culture and science.

Article 5. Each Contracting Party can introduce scholar- and fellowships, either to make possible for its own nationals to start or to continue study or research in the territory of the other Party in the field of science, art and technique, or to enable the nationals of the other Party to perform similar studies or research in its own territory. In the latter case only the Government of each Party can nominate its own nationals as candidates for recipient of scholar or fellowships offered by the Government of the other Party.

Article 6. Each Contracting Party endeavours to extend to the nationals of the other Party, who, based on article 5 are holders of a scholar- or fellowship, the privileges and material facilities enjoyed by students in their respective countries.

The holders of a scholar- or a fellowship should conform themselves to the laws of the country of study.

Article 7. The two Contracting Parties agree to study the conditions for the recognition of the equality of diplomas, academic degrees and other proofs of study issued in their respective countries.

Article 8. The two Contracting Parties promote the mutual cooperation and meeting between youth organisations and institutes for mass education, physical education and sports, recognized by their respective governments.

Article 9. The two Contracting Parties convey to each other their findings and other information, opinion and all which can contribute to the development of basic education.

Article 10. The two Contracting Parties observe vigilantly by all means at their disposal and in the framework of their respective legislation, that matters affecting the other party in all study books and in particular in all history books used in the various branches of education, be presented as objectively as possible.

Every suggestion by the other party aimed to rectify factual errors or mis-interpretations which may appear in those books, is taken into consideration.

Article 11. The two Contracting Parties promote the exchange, dissemination and translation of books, brochures, publication and periodicals, as well as the exchange and dissemination of films in the field of literature, arts, sciences, educations, techniques and music.

Article 12. The two Contracting Parties agree to facilitate the organisation of artistic, literary, scientific and educational exhibitions, the holding of lectures, concerts and theatrical performances in the territory of the other Party.

Article 13. The Contracting Parties endeavour, whenever possible, to promote within the universities or other institutes of higher education situated in their respective territories, the knowledge of the language, the literature, the history of the other party as well as of all other relevant subjects, by introducing chairs, courses, training facilities and conferences.

Article 14. The two Contracting Parties endeavour to promote technical cooperation and the exchange of programs between their respective radio and television stations.

Article 15. Within the framework of the implementation of this Agreement, the two Contracting Parties will facilitate the entry and stay of the other Party's nationals, as well as of their relatives in their respective territories in accordance with existing laws and regulations.

In these circumstances, facilities will be extended for the importation of goods and personal effects.

Article 16. In view of the application of this Agreement, as a result of discussions between the two Contracting Parties, a Permanent Joint Commission of eight members will be established. This Commission will consist of two sections, the first, consisting of Indonesian members, seated in Djakarta, the second of Belgian members, seated in Brussels. Each section will have four members.

The Belgian Ministers responsible for National Education and Culture, nominate the members of the Belgian Section, in consultation with the Belgian Ministers of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade. The Indonesian Minister of Education and Culture does the same in consultation with the Indonesian Minister of Foreign Affairs.

The list of the members of each of the Contracting Party will be forwarded along diplomatic channels to the Government of the other Party for approval.

The Permanent Joint Commission meets in pleno every time if deemed necessary and at least once in two years alternately in Indonesia and in Belgium.

The Joint Commission's plenary meetings in Belgium will be presided over by a prominent personality appointed by the Ministers responsible for National Education and Culture and in Indonesia by the Minister of Education and Culture or his representative.

The two Contracting Parties and the respective Sections of the Joint Commissions can invite experts to attend their conferences.

Article 17. In view of the application of this Agreement the Permanent Joint Commission regularly designs a working programme, the execution of which is entrusted to the competent services of each of the Contracting Parties.

Article 18. The Permanent Joint Commission also has the task to study measures considered proper to the application of this agreement and to submit its findings to the two Contracting Parties for approval.

Every extension or modification of this Agreement will be arranged by a supplementary protocol.

Article 19. Pending the formation of the Permanent Joint Commission, the implementation of this Cultural Agreement will take place through diplomatic negotiations.

Article 20. This Agreement has to be ratified and the instruments of ratification will be exchanged in Brussels.

This Agreement will come into force one month after the exchange of the instruments of ratification.

This Agreement is concluded for a period of five years. If neither of the Contracting Parties has notified the other Contracting Party six months before the expiration of the aforementioned period of its desire to terminate the Agreement, it will remain in force consecutively for a period of one year.

In case of termination the position of the various beneficiaries remains unaltered until the end of the current year as far as holders of scholar or fellowships are concerned till the end of the current academic year. Meanwhile all necessary measures will be taken in consult to complete projects, already in process of construction.

IN WITNESS THEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorized thereto, have signed the present Agreement.

DONE at Jakarta, in duplicate, in English, this fifteenth day of January, 1970.
