CULTURAL AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE FEDERATIVE REPUBLIC OF BRAZIL AND THE REPUBLIC OF KENYA

The Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil and the Government of the Republic of Kenya,

Faithful to the high ideals of the Charter of the United Nations,

Desiring to strengthen and to develop closer cultural relations between their countries, as a means of achieving total and mutually advantageous co-operation in the realms of literature, art, science technology and higher learning,

Have agreed as follows:

Article I. The Contracting Parties undertake to use the best endeavours to develop the relations between the two countries in the scientific, technical, university and sport levels, particularly in the artistic and cultural realms so as to contribute to better knowledge of the respective cultures.

Article II. Each Contracting Party undertakes to facilitate the creation, in accordance with their respective legislation, of establishments devoted to the dissemination of the culture of the other Party.

Article III. The Contracting Parties shall use their best efforts to promote the exchange of lecturers, University professors, research workers, specialists, technicians and other persons linked to the fields of education, science and culture.

Article IV. Each Contracting Party shall study the possibility of granting annually postgraduate scholarships to students, professionals, technicians, scientists and artists, citizens of the other Contracting Party.

Article V. The Contracting Parties shall explore the possibilities of having the diplomas and University certificates awarded in both countries mutually recognized.

Article VI. The Contracting Parties shall encourage co-operation in the motion picture field, by means of exchange of cultural films and by the organization of film festivals.

Article VII. Each Contracting Party undertakes to facilitate the organization in its territory of scientific and art expositions, conferences, concerts and theatrical shows, as well as sport events.

Article VIII. The Contracting Parties shall facilitate, in accordance with the national security and respective laws of the two States, the admission in their territories of books, newspapers, periodicals, artistic reproductions, records, tapes and films for educational and cultural purposes.

Article IX. The Contracting Parties shall encourage the exchange of cultural and artistic programmes between their radio and television stations.

Article X. Each Contracting Party shall facilitate the admittance of citizens of the other Party to its monuments, scientific institutions, research centres, libraries, public archives and other cultural establishments, subject to their respective legislation.

¹ Came into force on 15 October 1973, the date of the last of the notifications by which each Contracting Party informed the other of the conclusion of the procedures required to that effect, in accordance with article XII

Article XI. Whenever necessary to supervise the application of the present Agreement, the Contracting Parties shall consult each other on the convenience of organizing a Brazilian-Kenyan Cultural Commission to meet in Brazil or in Kenya.

Article XII. Each of the Contracting Parties shall notify the other on the conclusion of the procedures regarding the entrance into force of the present Agreement which shall be effective as of the date of the last of the mentioned notifications.

Article XIII. 1. This Agreement may be terminated by either Contracting Party giving to the other six months written notification.

2. The present Agreement is drawn up in duplicate in Portuguese and in English, both texts being equally authentic.

IN WITNESS THEREOF the undersigned, duly authorised by their respective Governments have signed the present Agreement and affixed their Seals thereto.
