NETHERLANDS

The Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands on the one hand, and
The Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, on the other hand,
Pursuant to article 8 of the Treaty of Commerce² signed this day between the Governments of the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands, members of the Benelux Economic Union, and the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics,
Have agreed as follows:

Article 1. The functions of the Trade Mission of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in the Netherlands shall be:

- (a) to promote the development of trade relations between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Netherlands;
- (b) to represent the interests of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in matters relating to foreign trade;
- (c) to regulate, on behalf of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, trade operations between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Netherlands;
- (d) to carry on trade on behalf of the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in the Netherlands.

Article 2. The Trade Mission shall form an integral part of the diplomatic mission of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in the Netherlands and, as such, shall enjoy all the privileges and immunities accorded to the latter.

The Trade Mission shall have its headquarters in Amsterdam.

Article 3. The head of the Trade Mission of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in the Netherlands and his two deputies shall enjoy all the rights and privileges accorded to members of the diplomatic staff of the diplomatic mission of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in the Netherlands.

Article 4. Branch offices of the Trade Mission may be opened in other towns in the Netherlands following agreement between the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Government of the Netherlands.

The legal status of these branch offices shall be determined by agreement between the two Parties.

Article 5. The size of the staff of the Trade Mission and the branch offices referred to in article 4 shall be determined by agreement between the Contracting Parties.

¹ Came into force on 1 June 1973, the date of entry into force of the Treaty of Commerce of 14 July 1971 between the Governments of Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands, members of the Benelux Economic Union, and the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, in accordance with article 9.

² United Nations, Treaty Series, vol. 883, No. I-12656.

Article 6. The Trade Mission shall act on behalf of the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

It may guarantee contracts concluded between any State economic organization of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics which under the laws of the Soviet Union enjoys independent corporate status and any Netherlands individual or body corporate.

The Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics shall be responsible only for commercial transactions concluded or guaranteed in the Netherlands on behalf of the Trade Mission signed by the persons authorized for that purpose.

Commercial transactions concluded without the guarantee of the Trade Mission by any organization referred to in the second paragraph of this article shall be binding only on the organization in question and execution issued in respect of such transactions may be taken only against the property of the said organization. No responsibility for such transactions shall be incurred by the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, or by its Trade Mission in the Netherlands, or by any other Soviet economic organization.

Article 7. The Trade Mission shall enjoy the privileges and immunities deriving from this Protocol with the following exceptions:

Any dispute regarding commercial transactions concluded or guaranteed by the Trade Mission in the territory of the Netherlands shall be brought before Netherlands courts and shall be decided by them in accordance with the national legislation of the Netherlands, in the absence of a reservation in the contract regarding any other jurisdiction or arbitration. No interim orders may, however, be made against the Trade Mission.

Enforcement of judicial decisions which have become res judicata in matters relating to commercial transactions concluded or guaranteed by the Trade Mission may be effected in respect of any State property of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, in particular the property, rights and interests arising out of those transactions, but excluding the property of the organizations referred to in the second paragraph of article 6 of this Protocol.

The property and premises intended exclusively for the exercise in the Netherlands of the political and diplomatic rights of the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, in accordance with international practice, as well as the premises occupied by the Trade Mission and the moveable property on such premises shall not be subject to measures of forcible recovery.

Article 8. The Trade Mission shall not be subject to the regulations governing commercial registration.

It shall publish in the official journal of the Netherlands the names of persons authorized to carry out legal transactions on its behalf and all information concerning the extent to which such persons are empowered to bind the Trade Mission in commercial matters by their signatures.

The powers of these persons with regard to third parties shall remain in effect until such time as notice of their termination is published in the above-mentioned official journal.

Article 9. This Protocol shall enter into force at the same time as the Treaty of Commerce between the Governments of the Kingdom of Belgium, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands, members of the Benelux Economic Union, and the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist
