

No. 16813

MONGOLIA
and POLAND

Treaty of friendship and co-operation. Signed at Ulan-Bator on 4 July 1975

Authentic texts: Mongolian and Polish.

Registered by Mongolia on 7 July 1978.

MONGOLIE et POLOGNE

Accord d'amitié et de coopération. Signé à Oulan-Bator le 4 juillet 1975

Textes authentiques : mongol et polonais.

Enregistré par la Mongolie le 7 juillet 1978.

[TRANSLATION — TRADUCTION]

TREATY¹ OF FRIENDSHIP AND CO-OPERATION BETWEEN THE MONGOLIAN PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC AND THE POLISH
PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC

The Mongolian People's Republic and the Polish People's Republic,

Expressing the sincere desire of the Mongolian and Polish peoples for the unremitting development and strengthening of mutual relations based on the principles of fraternal friendship, close co-operation and mutual assistance between the two States,

Deeply convinced that the further broadening and enhancement of friendly relations between the two States on the basis of the principles of Marxism-Leninism and socialist internationalism fully accords with the vital interests of the Mongolian and Polish peoples and serves the cause of strengthening the unity of the socialist community,

Believing that close economic co-operation between the two States fully accords with the aims and tasks of further developing and improving socialist economic integration and progressively bringing closer together and equalizing the level of economic development of the States members of the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance,

Proceeding from the common aspiration of the two States for comprehensive action to safeguard peace and international security in accordance with the principles of peaceful coexistence between States with different social systems,

Guided by the noble purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations,

Have decided to conclude this Treaty and have for that purpose agreed as follows:

Article 1. The High Contracting Parties, in accordance with the principles of socialist internationalism, shall continue to strengthen the fraternal friendship between the Mongolian and Polish peoples in every way and to develop comprehensive co-operation and mutual assistance between the two States on the basis of the principles of respect for sovereignty, equality of rights and non-interference in internal affairs.

Article 2. The High Contracting Parties, fulfilling their internationalist duty, shall ceaselessly make all possible efforts to strengthen in every way the unity and solidarity of the socialist community.

Article 3. The High Contracting Parties shall consistently pursue a policy of peaceful coexistence between States with different social systems and shall actively contribute to strengthening peace and international security, preventing the use or threat of force, halting the arms race and achieving general and complete disarmament, and definitively abolishing colonialism, neo-colonialism and racial discrimination.

¹ Came into force on 2 December 1975 by the exchange of the instruments of ratification, which took place at Warsaw, in accordance with article 11.

Article 4. The High Contracting Parties shall make particular efforts for the creation of effective security systems in Europe and Asia. The Parties affirm the immutability and inviolability of the existing political and territorial realities in Europe.

Article 5. The High Contracting Parties shall ceaselessly develop and enhance economic, scientific and technical co-operation between the two States on the basis of the principles of mutual assistance, mutual benefit and the international socialist division of labour. The Parties shall give extensive support to multilateral economic co-operation within the framework of the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance and shall work in every way to raise the levels of economic development of the States members of the Council and bring them closer together by implementing a complex programme for the further enhancement and improvement of co-operation and the development of socialist economic integration.

Article 6. The High Contracting Parties shall continue to develop and expand close co-operation between the two States in the fields of science, education, health protection, culture, literature, art, the press, radio, television, cinematography, tourism, sports and physical culture and in other fields.

Article 7. The High Contracting Parties shall give extensive support to the establishment of direct links and working contacts between the State organs, economic, cultural and other institutions and social organizations of the two States, with a view to the practical achievement of comprehensive co-operation and of a more thorough familiarization of the Mongolian and Polish peoples with life and the achievements of socialist construction in the Mongolian People's Republic and the Polish People's Republic.

Article 8. The High Contracting Parties shall exchange views and information and consult each other on all important international problems of interest to them.

Article 9. In implementation of this Treaty, appropriate agreements and understandings shall be concluded between the Governments, State organs, economic, cultural and other institutions, and social organizations of the two States.

Article 10. This Treaty shall not affect bilateral and multilateral agreements and understandings previously entered into by the High Contracting Parties.

Article 11. This Treaty is subject to ratification and shall enter into force on the date of the exchange of the instruments of ratification, which shall take place at Warsaw.

This Treaty is concluded for a term of 20 years and shall be automatically extended for further terms of 10 years if neither of the High Contracting Parties denounces it 12 months before the expiry of the current term.

DONE at Ulan Bator on 4 July 1975 in duplicate in the Mongolian and Polish languages, both texts being equally authentic.

For the Mongolian People's Republic:

[J. CEDENBAT]

For the Polish People's Republic:

[H. JABLOŃSKI]