TRADE AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS AND THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF MOZAMBIQUE

The Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Government of the People's Republic of Mozambique, desiring to strengthen and develop trade relations between the two countries on the basis of equality and mutual benefit, have agreed as follows:

Article 1. With a view to promoting and facilitating trade between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the People's Republic of Mozambique, the two Contracting Parties shall grant each other most-favoured-nation treatment in all matters relating to trade between the two countries.

Article 2. The import and export of goods shall be effected in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and with the import, export and exchange-control laws and regulations in force in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the People's Republic of Mozambique, on the basis of contracts concluded between Soviet foreign-trade organizations, on the one hand, and foreign-trade organizations and physical and juridical persons of the People's Republic of Mozambique, on the other.

The competent authorities of the two Contracting Parties shall freely issue import and export licences, when necessary, for the goods to be traded.

Article 3. Deliveries of goods under this agreement shall be effected at prices agreed between the seller and the buyer on the basis of the prices prevailing on the principal world markets for the goods in question.

Article 4. Payment for goods traded under this Agreement and other payments shall be made in any freely convertible currency and in accordance with the laws in force in each country.

Article 5. The Contracting Parties shall promote the development of transit trade of benefit to both countries through their respective territories in accordance with the laws and regulations in force in each country in respect of transit.

Article 6. The Contracting Parties shall afford each other assistance with regard to participation in trade fairs held in either country and in the organization of permanent or temporary exhibitions of one country in the territory of the other, subject to the conditions agreed upon by the competent authorities of the two Contracting Parties.

Article 7. The Contracting Parties shall permit the import and export of the articles specified below free of customs duties, taxes and other charges of a similar nature, without prejudice to the laws and regulations in force in their respective countries:

¹ Came into force on 12 February 1976 by signature, in accordance with article 9.

- a) Articles intended for use as samples and advertising materials having no commercial value;
- b) Articles and goods imported for fairs and exhibitions, provided that they are not sold;
- c) Articles and materials temporarily imported for processing, repair or treatment, provided that they are re-exported;
- d) Tools and instruments used for the assembly and mounting of equipment, provided that they are re-exported.

Article 8. Representatives of the Contracting Parties shall meet by mutual agreement for the purpose of supervising the application of this agreement and formulating appropriate recommendations when necessary.

Article 9. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of its signature and shall be valid for a period of three years. It shall be automatically renewed for further such periods unless one of the Contracting Parties gives written notice to the other Party, six months prior to the expiry of the current term, of its desire to terminate it.

On the expiry of this Agreement, its provisions shall continue to be applied to contracts concluded during the term of the Agreement but not fully executed by the date of its expiry.

DONE at Moscow on 12 February 1976 in two original copies, each in the Russian and Portuguese languages, both texts being equally authentic.
