AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS, THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA AND THE INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY AGENCY REGARDING THE COMMON HEADQUARTERS AREA

Bearing in mind the Agreement of 11 December 1957 between the Republic of Austria and the International Atomic Energy Agency (hereinafter called “the Agency”) regarding the Headquarters of the Agency² and the Agreement signed on 13 April 1967 between the Republic of Austria and the United Nations regarding the Headquarters of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization³ (hereinafter called “both Headquarters Agreements”);

Considering that the Federal Government of the Republic of Austria (hereinafter called “the Government”) has offered to the Agency and the United Nations (hereinafter called “the Organization”) the joint use of land, buildings and facilities within the Vienna International Center as a common headquarters area (hereinafter called “the common area”);

Recognizing that pursuant to section 3 of both Headquarters Agreements the respective headquarters seat shall be defined in supplemental agreements to be concluded between the Government and the Organizations;

The Organizations and the Government have agreed as follows:

Article I. The common area as shown in the map attached to this Agreement⁴ shall constitute a part of the permanent headquarters seat of each of the Organizations as provided for in section 3 of both Headquarters Agreements. Accordingly, the provisions of both Headquarters Agreements shall apply mutatis mutandis to that area.

Article II. This Agreement shall enter into force on 1 September 1979.

DONE at Vienna and New York, in triplicate, in the English and German languages, both texts being equally authentic, on 28 September 1979.
