ANNEX

OPERATIVE PARAGRAPHS OF THE OVERSEAS SERVICE (GRENADA) AGREEMENT 1971

1. The Government of the United Kingdom will make the reimbursements and payments, as specified in this Agreement, to or in respect of officers in the public service of the Government of Grenada who are designated by the Government of the United Kingdom in accordance with this Agreement (such officers hereinafter being referred to as "designated officers").

2. An officer may be designated generally or for such period as may be specified in the designation; and the designation of an officer may be terminated at the discretion of the Government of the United Kingdom: Provided that the Government of the United Kingdom in exercise of the discretion to terminate the designation of an officer shall take into account the consequences that would follow if designation were to be terminated.

3. The Government of the United Kingdom will reimburse the Government of Grenada the aggregate amount paid by the Government of Grenada in providing for designated officers and their dependent families passages on such occasions (not being occasions referred to in paragraph 5 of this agreement) as the Government of Grenada may, with the concurrence of the Government of the United Kingdom, prescribe.

4. The Government of the United Kingdom will, on behalf of the Government of Grenada, pay direct to each designated officer:

- (a) An inducement allowance at such rate as may be specified from time to time by the Government of the United Kingdom;
- (b) Any education allowance for which the officer may be eligible in respect of any child under such terms and conditions and at such rates as may be specified from time to time by the Government of the United Kingdom;
- (c) Any appointment grant for which the officer may be eligible on such terms and conditions and at such rates as may be specified from time to time by the Government of the United Kingdom;
- (d) That part of any gratuity payable to the officer which accrues to him by virtue of the addition to his emoluments on the inducement allowance referred to in this paragraph.

5. The Government of the United Kingdom will meet the cost of holiday visit passages for the children of a designated officer, that is to say, passages to enable children to visit their parents in Grenada, on such terms and conditions and occasions and in respect of such children and at such rates and by such classes of accommodation as may be specified from time to time by the Government of the United Kingdom.

6. The allowance, grant and gratuity payable direct to a designated officer by the Government of the United Kingdom in accordance with the provisions of this agreement will be paid into an account at a bank nominated by the officer situated in the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland or such other country as may be agreed by the Government of the United Kingdom.

7. The allowances, grant and gratuity paid direct by the Government of the United Kingdom to a designated officer shall be exempt from the payment of income tax under any law in force in Grenada.

8. In the event of a designated officer being seconded from the employment of the Government of Grenada without the concurrence of the United Kingdom, the Government of Grenada will, if requested to do so by the Government of the United Kingdom, pay to that Government a sum equal to the total cost of the reimbursements and payments made by that Government in respect of that officer whilst so seconded.

9. The Government of Grenada will provide each designated officer, within a reasonable time to his taking up employment with that Government, with accommodation and basic furnishings in good condition and agreed with the Government of the United Kingdom to be suitable to the rank and family circumstances of the officer at a rent reasonable in relation to his basic salary.

10. Whenever the Government of Grenada desires that an officer to be recruited by them should be designated by the Government of the United Kingdom, or that an officer who has been designated and is to be re-engaged should be further designated by the Government of the United Kingdom, the Government of Grenada will give the Government of the United Kingdom such information as that Government may require to enable them to decide whether or not to designate the officer or further designate the officer as the case may be.

11. The Government of Grenada will promptly inform the Government of the United Kingdom of any event which might affect the eligibility of a designated officer under this Agreement to receive payments from the Government of the United Kingdom.

12. The Government of Grenada will, whenever requested to do so by the Government of the United Kingdom, supply to that Government such accounts and other information in connection with the operation of this Agreement as may be specified in such request.

13. This Agreement shall come into operation on 1 April, and on 31 March 1971 the Overseas Service (Grenada) Agreement 1961 (and any agreement amending that agreement) shall terminate.

14. This Agreement shall terminate, unless some other date is agreed between the Government of the United Kingdom and Grenada, on 31 March 1976.
