AGREEMENT¹ ON CULTURAL COOPERATION BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE KINGDOM OF DENMARK AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE HELLENIC REPUBLIC

The Government of the Kingdom of Denmark and the Government of the Hellenic Republic,

Desiring to maintain and strengthen the bonds of friendship which exist between the two countries and to develop the knowledge of each other's cultures and by so doing to contribute to further mutual understanding between the peoples of Denmark and Greece,

Have agreed as follows:

Article I. The Parties shall promote cooperation between the scientific, educational, cultural and artistic institutions and organisations of the two countries, having regard to reciprocal benefits and interests.

Article II. In this context the Parties shall

- 1) Award scholarships to students for postgraduate and advanced studies or specialization in the fields of education, science and culture;
- 2) Promote visits by research workers, guest professors or other persons or groups of persons engaged in science, education or culture;
- 3) Facilitate participation by representatives from the other country in congresses, seminars, etc. of an international character which may take place within their respective territories;
- 4) Exchange information on important achievements in the fields of research, education and culture, and promote possible coordinated research;
- 5) Exchange books, periodicals and other publications, instructional materials for use in schools, other teaching institutions and research institutes as well as films, recordings and other information material for dissemination by means of radio, cinema and television for non-commercial purposes;
- 6) Promote studies of the language, literature and culture of the other Party;
- 7) Promote mutual arrangements of cultural manifestations;
- 8) Encourage collaboration in the fields of press, radio and television.

Article III. Within the terms of the laws and regulations in force in its territory, each Party shall grant to the other every reasonable facility for the entry, residence and departure of persons, and for the importation of the material and equipment necessary for carrying out the programmes or exchanges which may be established in accordance with this Agreement.

Article IV. The programmes of exchange and other activities under this Agreement shall be worked out through negotiations of representatives of the two Parties. Such negotiations can take place at the request of either Party through diplomatic channels. Exchanges foreseen in this Agreement shall be based on the principle of reciprocity and shall be arranged through the diplomatic channels of the two Parties.

Article V. 1) This Agreement shall be applied provisionally from the date of its signature and shall enter into force definitively with effect from the date on which the Parties shall have notified each other of the completion of any necessary legislative procedure.

2) This Agreement shall remain in force until two years from the date on which either Party shall have given to the other notice of termination.

3) Termination as described in the previous paragraph shall not affect the completion of existing programmes.

DONE at Athens on September 17, 1976, in two original copies in the English language, both copies being equally authentic.
