AGREEMENT¹ ON CULTURAL COOPERATION BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF AUSTRALIA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOCIALIST FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF YUGOSLAVIA

The Government of Australia and the Government of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia,

Desiring to develop cooperation in the fields of culture, science and education between their two countries and to further mutual understanding and friendly relations between the peoples of Australia and Yugoslavia,

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1. Each Government shall promote understanding in its own country of the history, culture, respective institutions and general way of life of the other country.

Article 2. The two Governments shall encourage and facilitate cooperation between their countries in the fields of literature, music, education, the visual and performing arts and other activities of a cultural nature.

Article 3. Each Government shall encourage in its own country exhibitions, theatrical, musical and dancing performances, film showings, lectures, seminars and similar activities pertaining to the social, artistic and scientific life of the other country.

Article 4. Each Government shall facilitate by every appropriate means in its own country, the supply and distribution of books, and other publications, radio and television programs, educational, documentary and other films of the other country.

Article 5. Each Government shall encourage in educational or other institutions in its own country the teaching of the language, literature and culture and other aspects of the life of the peoples of the other country.

Each Government shall encourage translation and publication in the languages of their peoples of literary and other works of the other country.

Article 6. Each Government shall facilitate in its country the provision of scholarships to the citizens of the other country for study, scientific research and specialist training.

The two Governments shall encourage visits and exchanges of school teachers, university teachers and other academic personnel, researchers, lecturers, scientists and experts between the two countries.

Article 7. The two Governments shall cooperate in the exchange of information on standards and developments of their countries' respective educational systems to assist in the interpretation and evaluation of degrees, diplomas and certificates both for academic and where appropriate, professional purposes.

Article 8. The two Governments shall encourage cooperation in the fields of press, radio and television.

¹ Came into force on 31 March 1977, the date on which the Governments notified each other by an exchange of notes that their respective constitutional and other requirements had been complied with, in accordance with article 13.

Article 9. The two Governments shall encourage visits and promote cooperation between the youth and youth organisations of their two countries.

Article 10. The two Governments shall encourage contacts and cooperation in sporting activities between sportsmen and sporting organisations of the respective countries.

Article 11. The two Governments shall encourage and facilitate development of tourism between the two countries with the aim of promoting mutual understanding between the peoples of their countries.

Article 12. The two Governments may convene periodic meetings for the purposes of:

- (a) Considering arrangements for the implementation of this Agreement including arrangements for specific exchanges; and
- (b) Establishing and reviewing bilateral cultural programs incorporating activities within the terms of this Agreement.

Article 13. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date on which the two Governments shall exchange notes notifying each other that their respective constitutional and other requirements necessary to give effect to the Agreement have been complied with.

This Agreement shall remain in force until 180 days after the day on which one Government shall have given written notice to the other of its desire to terminate the Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto by their respective Governments, have signed the present Agreement.

DONE in two originals at Canberra this fourteenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and seventy-six in English and Serbo-Croatian languages, all texts being equally authoritative.
