Item IV. EXPORT LIMITATIONS

A. Export Limitation Period: The export limitation period shall be United States Fiscal Year 1980, or any subsequent United States Fiscal Year during which commodities financed under this Agreement are being imported or utilized.

¹ Came into force on 23 April 1980 by signature.

² United Nations, Treaty Series, vol. 1147, p. 85.

B. Commodities to Which Export Limitations Apply. For the purposes of part I, article III A (4) of this Agreement, the commodities which may not be exported are: For soybean/cottonseed Oil—all edible vegetable oils, including peanut oil, soybean oil, cottonseed oil, rapeseed oil, sunflower oil, sesame oil, and any other edible vegetable oils or oil-bearing seeds from which these oils are produced.

Item V. SELF-HELP MEASURES

A. In implementing these self-help measures, specific emphasis will be placed on contributing directly to development progress in poor rural areas and on enabling the poor to participate actively in increasing agricultural production through small farm agriculture.

B. The Government of Guyana agrees to:

1. The continued expansion of agricultural extension services designed to provide the small farmer with technical advice as well as production and marketing facilities, including seeds, fertilizer, pesticides, commodity price information, and the means of delivering produce to a market site;
2. The continued research aimed at the improvement of varieties of rice and food-crops best suited for local soil and climatic conditions;
3. Improvement and/or repair of irrigation/drainage and water facilities which will contribute to bringing into production and/or maintaining agricultural areas or which contribute to providing safe water supplies for rural areas;
4. A major effort to expand farm-to-market roads and open up sizable areas of new land to production for local consumption as well as export to CARICOM members; and
5. Renovation and/or extension of a seawall designed to prevent tidal flooding of coastal farm areas.

Item VI. ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PURPOSES FOR WHICH PROCEEDS ACCRUING TO THE IMPORTING COUNTRY ARE TO BE USED

A. The proceeds accruing to the importing country from the sale of commodities financed under this Agreement will be used for financing the self-help measures set forth in item V above, and for the Economic Development Budget.

B. In the use of proceeds for these purposes emphasis will be placed on directly improving the lives of the poorest of the recipient country's people and their capacity to participate in the development of their country.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the respective representatives, duly authorized for the purpose, have signed the present Agreement.

DONE at Georgetown, in duplicate, the 23 day of April 1980.
