AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

The United Nations, through the Economic Commission for Latin America (hereinafter referred to as "ECLA"), and the Government of the Argentine Republic have decided to conclude an agreement on the continuation of the activities of the ECLA Office in Buenos Aires, in accordance with the conditions established below:

Article 1. ECLA shall maintain the Office in the city of Buenos Aires, which, in addition to representing the Commission, shall carry out technical programmes consisting of studies and research in the economic and social fields.

Article 2. The Executive Secretary of ECLA shall delegate to a Director the tasks of supervising and administering the activities of the ECLA Office in Buenos Aires.

Article 3. The ECLA Office in Buenos Aires and the international personnel attached thereto shall enjoy all the rights, privileges and immunities established in the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations² and the Agreement between the United Nations Special Fund and the Government of the Argentine Republic³, both of which have been ratified by the Argentine Government.

Article 4. The terms of the present Agreement supersede those of the Agreement signed on 12 December 1973 between ECLA and the Argentine Government⁴.

DONE in the city of Buenos Aires, capital of the Argentine Republic, on 9 April 1979, in two original copies in the Spanish language, the two texts being equally authentic.

For the United Nations:

[Signed]

ENRIQUE V. IGLESIAS
Executive Secretary of ECLA

For the Government of the Argentine Republic:
