THE COOPERATION COUNCIL FOR THE ARAB STATES OF THE GULF

RULES OF PROCEDURES OF THE SUPREME COUNCIL

Article One. DEFINITIONS

These regulations shall be called Rules of Procedures of the Supreme Council of the Gulf Arab States Cooperation Council and shall encompass the rules that govern procedures for convening the Council and the exercise of its functions.

Article Two. MEMBERSHIP

1. The Supreme Council shall be composed of the heads of state of the Cooperation Council member states. The Presidency shall be rotatory based on the alphabetical order of the states' names.

2. Each member state shall notify the Secretary-General of the names of the members of its delegations to the Council meeting, at least seven days prior to the date set for opening the meeting.

Article Three

With due regard to the objectives of the Cooperation Council and the jurisdiction of the Supreme Council as specified in articles 4 and 8 of the Charter, the Supreme Council may perform the following:

1. Form technical committees and select their members from member states' nominees who specialize in the committees' respective fields.
2. Call one or more of its members to a specific subject and submit a report thereon to be distributed to the members sufficiently in advance of the meeting set for discussing that subject.

Article Four. CONVENING THE SUPREME COUNCIL

1. a. The Supreme Council shall hold one regular session every year, and may hold extraordinary sessions at the request of any one member seconded by another member.

b. The Supreme Council shall hold its sessions at the heads of state level.

c. The Supreme Council shall hold its sessions in the member states territories.

d. Prior to convening the Supreme Council, the Secretary-General shall hold a meeting to be attended by delegates of the member states for consultation on matters related to the session's agenda.

2. a. The Secretary-General shall set the opening date of the Council's session and suggest a closing date.

b. The Secretary-General shall issue the invitations for convening a regular session no less than thirty days in advance, and for convening an extraordinary session, within no more than five days.

Article Five

1. The Supreme Council shall at the start of every session decide whether the meetings shall be secret or public.

2. A meeting shall be considered valid if attended by heads of state of two thirds of the member states. Its resolutions in substantive matters shall be carried by unanimous agreement of the member states present and participating in the vote, while resolutions in procedural matters shall be carried by majority vote. Any member abstaining shall document his being not bound by the resolution.

Article Six

1. The Council shall hold an extraordinary session based on:
 - a. Resolution issued in a previous session.
 - b. Request of a member state seconded by another state. In this case, the Council shall convene within no more than five days from the date of issue of the invitation for holding the extraordinary session.
2. No matters may be placed on the extraordinary session's agenda other than those for which the session was convened to discuss.

Article Seven

1. Presidency of the Supreme Council shall, at the opening of each regular session, go to a head of state by rotation based on the alphabetical order of the member states' names. The President shall continue to exercise the functions of the Presidency until such functions are entrusted to his successor at the beginning of the next regular session.
2. The head of a state that is party to an outstanding dispute may not preside over a session or meeting called to discuss the subject of the dispute. In such case, the Council shall designate a temporary president.
3. The President shall declare the opening and closing of sessions and meetings, the suspension of meetings, and clotures, and shall see that the Cooperation Council Charter and these Rules of Procedures are duly complied with. He shall give the floor to speakers based on the order of their requests, submit suggestions for acceptance by the membership, direct voting procedures, give final decisions on points of order, announce resolutions, follow up on works of committees, and inform the Council of all incoming correspondence.
4. The President may take part in deliberations and submit suggestions in the name of the state which he represents and may, for this purpose, assign a member of his state's delegation to act on his behalf in such instances.

Article Eight. SUPREME COUNCIL AGENDA

1. The Ministerial Council shall prepare a draft agenda for the Supreme Council, and such draft agenda shall be conveyed by the Secretary-General, together with explanatory notes and documentation, to the member states under cover of the letter of convocation at least thirty days before the date set for the meeting.
2. The draft agenda shall include the following:
 - a. A report by the Secretary-General on the Supreme Council's activities between the two sessions, and actions taken to carry out its resolutions.
 - b. Reports and matters received from the Ministerial Council and the Secretariat General.
 - c. Matters which the Supreme Council had previously decided to include on the agenda.
 - d. Matters suggested by a member state for necessary review by the Supreme Council.
3. Every member state may request inclusion of additional items on the draft agenda provided such request is tabled at least fifteen days prior to the date set for opening the session. Such matters shall be listed in an additional agenda which shall be sent, along with relevant documentation, to the member states, at least five days before the date set for the session.
4. Any member state may request inclusion of extra items on the draft agenda as late as the date set for opening a session, if such matters are considered both important and urgent.
5. The Council shall approve its agenda at the start of every session.
6. The Council may, during the session, add new items that are considered urgent.

7. The ordinary session shall be adjourned after completion of discussions of the items placed on the agenda. The Supreme Council may decide to suspend the session's meetings before completion of discussions on agenda items, and resume such meetings at a later date.

Article Nine. OFFICE AND COMMITTEES OF SUPREME COUNCIL

1. The Supreme Council Office shall be formed, in every session, of the Council President, the Chairman of the Ministerial Council and the Secretary-General. The Office shall be headed by the Supreme Council President.

2. The Office shall carry out the following functions

- a. Review the text of resolutions passed by the Supreme Council without affecting their contents.
- b. Assist the President of the Supreme Council in directing the activities of the session in a general way.
- c. Other tasks indicated in these Rules of Procedures or other matters entrusted to it by the Supreme Council.

Article Ten

1. The Council may, at the start of every session, create any committees that it deems necessary to allow adequate study of matters listed on the agenda. Delegates of member states shall take part in the activities of such committees.

2. Meetings of committees shall continue until they complete their tasks, with due regard for the date set for closing the session. Their resolutions shall be carried by majority vote.

3. Every committee shall start its work by selecting a chairman from among its members. The rapporteur of the committee shall act for the chairman in directing the meeting in the absence of the chairman. The chairman, or the rapporteur in the chairman's absence, shall submit to the Council all the explanations that it requests on the committee's reports. The chairman may, with the approval of the session's President, take part in the discussions, without voting if he is not a member of the Supreme Council.

4. The Council may refer any of the matters included in the agenda to the committees, based on their specialization for study and reporting. Any one item may be referred to more than one committee.

5. Committees may neither discuss any matter not referred to them by the Council, nor adopt any recommendation which, if approved by the Council, may produce a financial obligation, before the committee receives a report from the Secretary-General regarding the financial and administrative results that may ensue from adopting the resolution.

Article Eleven. PROGRESS OF DELIBERATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

1. Every member state may participate in the deliberations and committees of the Supreme Council as stipulated in these Rules of Procedures.

2. The President shall direct discussion of the items as presented in order on the meeting's agenda and may, when necessary, call the Secretary-General or his representative to the meeting to explain any point as necessary.

3. The President shall give the floor to speakers in the order of their requests. He may give priority to the chairman or rapporteur of a committee to submit a report or explain specific points.

4. Every member may, during deliberations, raise points of order which the President shall resolve immediately and his decisions shall be valid unless contradicted by a majority of the Supreme Council member states.

Article Twelve

1. Every member may, during the discussion of any subject, request suspension or adjournment of the meeting or discussion of the subject, or cloture. Such requests may not be discussed but the President shall put them to the vote, if duly seconded, and decision shall be by majority of the member states.

2. With due regard to provisions of item 4 of the preceding article, suggestions indicated in item 1 of this article, shall be given priority over all others based on the following order:

- a. Suspend the meeting.
- b. Adjourn the meeting.
- c. Postpone discussion of the matter on hand.
- d. Cloture of discussion of the matter on hand.

3. Apart from suggestions concerning language or procedural matters, draft resolutions and substantive amendments shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary-General or his representative who shall distribute them as soon as possible to the delegations. No draft resolution may be submitted for discussion or voting before the text thereof is distributed to all the delegations.

4. A proposal that has already been decided upon in the same session may not be reconsidered unless the Council decides otherwise.

Article Thirteen

The President shall follow the activities of the committees, inform the Supreme Council of correspondence received, and formally announce before members all the resolutions and recommendations arrived at.

Article Fourteen. VOTING

Every member state shall have one vote and no state may represent another state or vote for it.

Article Fifteen

1. Voting shall be by calling the names in the alphabetical order of the states' names, or by raising hands. Voting shall be secret if so requested by a member by decision of the President.

The Supreme Council may decide otherwise. The vote of every member shall be documented in the minutes of the meeting if voting is effected by calling the names. The minutes shall indicate the result of voting, if the vote is secret or by show of hands.

2. A member may abstain from a vote or express reservations over a procedural matter or part thereof, in which case the reservation shall be read at the time the resolution is announced and shall be duly documented in writing. Members may present explanations about their stand in the voting after voting is completed.

3. Once the President announces that voting has started, no interruption may be made unless the matter relates to a point of order relevant to the vote.

Article Sixteen

1. If a member requests amendment of a proposal, voting on the amendment shall be carried out first. If there are more than one amendment, voting shall first be made on the amendment which in the President's opinion is farthest from the original proposal, then on the next farthest, and so on until voting is completed on all proposed amendments. If one or more such amendments is passed, then voting shall be made on the original proposal as amended.

2. Any new proposal shall be deemed as an amendment to the original proposal if it merely entails an addition to, omission from or change to a part of the original proposal.

Article Seventeen

1. The Supreme Council may create technical committees charged with giving advice on the design and execution of Supreme Council programs in specific fields.

2. The Supreme Council shall appoint the members of the technical committees from specialists who are citizens of the member states.

3. The technical committees shall meet at the invitation of the Secretary-General and shall lay down their work plans in consultation with him.

4. The Secretary-General shall prepare the committees' agendas after consultation with the chairman of the committee concerned.

Article Eighteen. AMENDMENT OF RULES OF PROCEDURES

1. Any member state may propose amendments to the Rules of Procedures.

2. No proposed amendments may be considered unless the relevant proposal is circulated to the member states by the Secretariat General prior to tabling with the Ministerial Council by at least thirty days.

3. No basic changes may be introduced to the proposed amendment mentioned in the preceding item unless the text of such proposed changes have been circulated to the member states by the Secretariat General before tabling with the Ministerial Council by at least fifteen days.

4. Except for items based on the provisions of the Charter, and with due regard to preceding items, these Rules of Procedures shall be amended by a resolution of the Supreme Council approved by majority of the members.

Article Nineteen. EFFECTIVE DATE

These Rules of Procedures shall go into effect as of the date of approval by the Supreme Council and may not be amended except in accordance with procedures set forth in the preceding article.

These Rules of Procedures are signed at Abu Dhabi City, United Arab Emirates, on 21 Rajab 1401 AH corresponding to 25 May 1981 AD.

2. Preparatory committees shall be composed of delegates of member states and may, when necessary, seek the help of such experts as they may deem fit.

3. Each preparatory committee shall meet at least three days prior to the opening of the session by invitation of the Secretary-General. The work of the committee shall end at the close of the session.

Article Twenty-One

1. The Council may, at the start of each session, form working committees and charge them with specific tasks.

2. The work of the working committees shall continue until the date set for closing the session.

Article Twenty-Two

1. Each subcommittee shall start its work by electing a chairman and a rapporteur from among its members. When the chairman is absent, the rapporteur shall act for him in directing the meetings.

2. The chairman or rapporteur of each subcommittee shall submit a report on its work to the Council.

3. The chairman or rapporteur of a subcommittee shall present to the Council all explanations required about the contents of the subcommittee's report.

Article Twenty-Three

1. The Secretariat-General shall organize the technical secretariat and subcommittees of the Council.

2. The Secretariat General shall prepare minutes of meetings documenting discussions, resolutions and recommendations. Such minutes shall be prepared for all meetings of the Council and its subcommittees.

3. The Secretary-General shall supervise the organization of the Council's relations with the information media.

4. The Secretary-General shall convey the Council's resolutions and recommendations and relevant documentation to the member states within fifteen days after the end of the session.

Article Twenty-Four

The Council's secretariat and subcommittee shall receive and distribute documents, reports, resolutions and recommendations of the Council and its subcommittees and shall draw up and distribute minutes and daily bulletins, as well as safeguard the documents and carry out any other tasks required by the Council's work.

Article Twenty-Five

Texts of resolutions or recommendations made by the Council may not be announced or published except by decision of the Council.

Article Twenty-Six. DELIBERATIONS

Every member state may take part in the deliberations of the Council and its subcommittees in the manner prescribed in these Rules of Procedures.

Article Twenty-Seven

1. The Chairman shall direct deliberations on matters on hand in the order they are listed on the Council's agenda.

2. The Chairman shall give the floor to speakers in the order of their requests. Priority may be given to the chairman or rapporteur of a certain committee to present its report or explain certain points therein. The floor shall be given to the Secretary-General or his representative whenever it is necessary.

3. The Council Chairman may, during deliberations, read the list of the names of members who requested the floor, and with the approval of the Council, close the list. The only exception is exercise of the right of reply.

Article Twenty-Eight

The Council shall decide whether the meetings shall be open or secret.

Article Twenty-Nine

1. Every member state may raise a point of order which the chairman shall resolve immediately and his decision shall be final unless opposed by majority of the member states.

2. A member who raises a point of order may not go beyond the point he raised.

Article Thirty

1. Every member may, during discussion of any matter, suggest the suspension or adjournment of the meeting, or discussion of the matter on hand, or cloture. The Chairman shall in such cases submit the suggestion to the vote directly, if the suggestion is seconded by another member, and it requires the approval of the majority of the member states to pass.

2. With due regard to the provisions of the preceding item, suggestions indicated therein shall be submitted to the vote in the following order:

- a. Suspension of meeting.
- b. Adjournment of meeting.
- c. Postponement of discussion of the matter on hand.
- d. Cloture of discussion of the matter on hand.

Article Thirty-One

1. Member states may suggest draft resolutions or recommendations, or amendments thereto, and may withdraw such suggestions unless they are voted upon.

2. Drafts indicated in the preceding item shall be submitted in writing to the Secretariat General for distribution to delegations as soon as possible.

3. Except for suggestions concerning language or procedures, drafts indicated in this article may not be discussed or voted upon before their texts are distributed to all delegations.

4. A suggestion already decided upon in the same session may not be reconsidered unless the Council decides otherwise.

Article Thirty-Two

The Chairman shall follow the work of the committees, inform the Council of incoming correspondence, and formally announce before members the resolutions and recommendations that have been arrived at.

Article Thirty-Three. VOTING

1. The Council shall pass its resolutions with the unanimous approval of the member states present and participating in the vote, while decisions in procedural matter shall be passed by a majority vote. The member abstaining from the vote shall document his non-subscription to the decision.

2. If members of the council should disagree on the definition of the matter being put to the vote, the matter shall be settled by majority vote of the member states present.

Article Thirty-Four

1. Every member state shall have one vote.
2. No member state may represent another state or vote for it.

Article Thirty-Five

1. Voting shall be by calling the names in the alphabetical order of the states' names, or by raising hands.

2. Voting shall be by secret ballot if so requested by a member or by decision of the Chairman. The Council, however, may decide otherwise.

3. The vote of every member shall be documented in the minutes of the meeting if voting is effected by calling the names. The minutes shall indicate the result of voting if the vote is secret or by show of hands.

4. Member states may explain their positions after the vote and such explanations shall be written down in the minutes of the meeting.

5. Once the Chairman announces that voting has started, no interruption may be made except for a point of order relating to the vote or its postponement in accordance with the provisions of this article and the next article.

Article Thirty-Six

1. The Council Chairman with the help of the Secretary-General shall endeavor to reconcile the stands of member states on disputed matters and obtain their agreement to a draft resolution before submitting it to the vote.

2. The Council Chairman, the Secretary-General or any member state may request postponement of a vote for a specific period during which further negotiations may be made concerning the item submitted to the vote.

Article Thirty-Seven

1. If a member requests amendment of a proposal, voting on the amendment shall be carried out first. If there are more than one amendment, voting shall first be made on the amendment which the Chairman considers to be farthest from the original proposal, then on the next farthest, and so on until all proposed amendments have been voted upon. If one or more amendment is passed, then voting shall be made on the original proposal as amended.

2. A new proposal shall be deemed as an amendment to the original proposal if it merely entails an addition to, omission from, or change to a part of the original proposal.

Article Thirty-Eight

1. Any member state or the Secretary-General may propose amending these Rules of Procedures.

2. No proposed amendment to these Rules of Procedures may be considered unless the relevant proposal is circulated to the member states by the Secretariat General at least thirty days before submission to the Council.

3. No basic changes may be introduced to the proposed amendment mentioned in the preceding item unless the texts of such proposed change have been circulated to the member states at least fifteen days prior to submission to the Council.

4. Except for items based on provisions of the Charter, and with due regard to preceding items, these Rules of Procedures shall be amended by a resolution of the Council approved by majority of its members.

Article Thirty-Nine. EFFECTIVE DATE

These Rules of Procedures shall go into effect as of the date of approval by the Council and may not be amended except in accordance with procedures set forth in the preceding article.

Thus, these Rules of Procedures are signed at Abu Dhabi City, United Arab Emirates, on 21 Rajab 1401 AH corresponding to 25 May 1981 AD.

THE COOPERATION COUNCIL FOR THE ARAB STATES OF THE GULF

RULES OF PROCEDURES
COMMISSION FOR SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

PREAMBLE

In accordance with the provisions of article six of the Charter of the Gulf Arab States Cooperation Council; and

In execution of the provision of article ten of the Cooperation Council Charter,

A Commission for Settlement of Disputes, hereinafter referred to as the Commission, shall be set up and its jurisdiction and rules for its proceedings shall be as follows:

Article One. TERMINOLOGY

Terms used in these Rules of Procedures shall have the same meanings established in the Charter of the Gulf Arab States Cooperation Council.

Article Two. COMMISSION'S SEAT AND MEETINGS

The Commission shall have its headquarters at Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, and shall hold its meetings on the territory of the state where its headquarters is located, but may hold its meetings elsewhere, when necessary.

Article Three. JURISDICTION

The Commission shall, once installed, have jurisdiction to consider the following matters referred to it by the Supreme Council:

- a. Disputes between member states.
- b. Differences of opinion as to the interpretation or execution of the Cooperation Council Charter.

Article Four. COMMISSION'S MEMBERSHIP

a. The Commission shall be formed of an appropriate number of citizens of member states not involved in the dispute as the Council selects in every case separately depending on the nature of the dispute, provided that the number shall not be less than three members.

b. The Commission may seek the advice of any such experts as it may deem necessary.

c. Unless the Supreme Council decides otherwise, the Commission's task shall end with the submission of its recommendations or opinion to the Supreme Council which, after the conclusion of the Commission's task, may summon it at any time to explain or elaborate on its recommendations or opinions.

Article Five. MEETINGS AND INTERNAL PROCEDURES

a. The Commission's meeting shall be valid if attended by all members.

b. The Secretariat General of the Cooperation Council shall prepare procedures required to conduct the Commission's affairs, and such procedures shall go into effect as of the date of approval by the Ministerial Council.

c. Each party to the dispute shall send representatives to the Commission who shall be entitled to follow proceedings and present their defense.

Article Six. CHAIRMANSHIP

The Commission shall select a chairman from among its members.

Article Seven. VOTING

Every member of the Commission shall have one vote, and shall issue its recommendations or opinions on matters referred to it by majority of the members. In case of a tie, the party with chairman vote shall prevail.

Article Eight. COMMISSION'S SECRETARIAT

a. The Secretary-General shall appoint a recorder for the Commission, and a sufficient number of employees to carry out the secretarial work.

b. The Supreme Council may create an independent organization to carry out the Commission's secretarial work when the need arises.

Article Nine. RECOMMENDATIONS AND OPINIONS

a. The Commission shall issue its recommendations or opinions in accordance with the Cooperation Council's Charter, international laws and practices, and the principles of Islamic Shari'ah. The Commission shall submit its findings on the case on hand to the Supreme Council for appropriate action.

b. The Commission may, while considering any dispute referred to it and pending the issue of its final recommendations thereon, ask the Supreme Council to take interim action called for by necessity or circumstances.

c. The Commission's recommendations or opinions shall spell out the reasons on which they were based and shall be signed by the chairman and recorder.

d. If an opinion is passed wholly or partially by unanimous vote of the members, the dissenting members shall be entitled to document their dissenting opinion.

Article Ten. IMMUNITIES AND PRIVILEGES

The Commission and its members shall enjoy such immunities and privileges in the territories of the member states as are required to realize its objectives and in accordance with article seventeen of the Cooperation Council Charter.

Article Eleven. COMMISSION'S BUDGET

The Commission's budget shall be considered part of the Secretariat General's budget. Remunerations of the Commission's members shall be established by the Supreme Council.

Article Twelve. AMENDMENTS

a. Any member state may request for amendments of these Rules of Procedures.

b. Requests for amendments shall be submitted to the Secretary-General who shall relay them to the member states by at least four months before submission to the Ministerial Council.

c. An amendment shall be effective if approved unanimously by the Supreme Council.

Article Thirteen. EFFECTIVE DATE

These Rules of Procedures shall go into effect as of the date of approval by the Supreme Council.
