I

Sir,

In connection with the signature of the Treaty of co-operation between France and the Congo, I have the honour to confirm that consular relations are governed by the provisions of the Vienna Convention of 24 April 1963,¹ the principles of which are in accordance with customary international law on the subject.

With regard to the establishment of consular offices, the rights reciprocally recognized by each Party remain unchanged.

In this connection, France has established a Consulate General in Brazzaville and a Consulate General in Pointe Noire, and the Congo may, when it so wishes and in conditions to be determined by mutual agreement, establish consular offices in Bordeaux, Lille, Marseilles, Paris and Strasbourg.

This letter together with your reply shall constitute an agreement between the French and Congolese Governments in this matter.

Accept, Sir, etc.
