CULTURAL AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOCIALIST FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF YUGOSLAVIA

The Government of the Republic of the Philippines and the Government of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, hereinafter referred to as the Contracting Parties,

Desirous of maintaining and strengthening for their mutual benefit the friendly relations existing between the Philippines and Yugoslavia,

Inspired by the need and common desire to promote and develop cultural relations among their respective peoples and developing mutual cooperation in cultural and educational fields,

Have decided to conclude an Agreement on cultural cooperation and have agreed as follows:

Article I. The Contracting Parties agree to promote cultural cooperation between the two countries on the basis of mutual respect for their sovereignty and in conformity with the laws and regulations in force in each country, having in mind the interest of their respective peoples.

Article II. The Contracting Parties shall, subject to the laws and regulations of each Party, endeavour to accord each other every possible facility to ensure better understanding of their respective cultures through an exchange of:

1. Books and periodicals dealing with art, literature and education;
2. Non-commercial cinematographic films and recordings for television and radio broadcasting programs dealing with culture, art and education; and
3. Art and other cultural exhibition, as well as production in the performing arts.

Article III. The Contracting Parties shall encourage, subject to the laws and regulations prevailing in each country:

1. The exchange of professors, scholars and members of cultural, art and educational institutions within their available resources;
2. The grant of scholarships to enable students to pursue their studies in the country of the other in the fields of culture, education, science and similar specialized fields; and
3. The exchange between the two countries, so far as is possible, in the field of physical education and sports.

Article IV. The Contracting Parties shall consult each other, when deemed necessary, to provide the details for the execution of the provisions of this Agreement.

¹ Came into force on 22 May 1981 by the exchange of the instruments of ratification, which took place at Belgrade, in accordance with article VII.

Article V. The Contracting Parties shall adopt, on the basis of reciprocity, the necessary measures for the protection in their respective territories of the intellectual and artistic property of each other's nationals, including national cultural treasures, in so far as these are not covered by a general agreement of an international character.

Article VI. Supplementary agreements necessary for the implementation of provisions of the present Agreement shall be, in the case of each item of implementation, the subject of an exchange of notes between the respective Ministries of Foreign Affairs of the Contracting Parties.

Article VII. The present Agreement shall be ratified by the Contracting Parties in accordance with the procedures laid down in their respective Constitutions and shall enter into force upon the exchange of the Instruments of Ratification.

The present Agreement shall remain in force for a period of five years and will be automatically extended for another period of five years unless notice of its termination is given in writing by one of the Contracting Parties to the other six months before its expiration.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorized by their respective Governments, have signed the present Agreement and have affixed hereunto their seals.

DONE in Manila this 14th day of September 1977, in duplicate, in the English language.
