AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF ZAMBIA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY REGARDING TECHNICAL CO-OPERATION

The Government of the Republic of Zambia and the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany,

On the basis of the friendly relations existing between the two States and their peoples,

Considering their common interest in promoting the economic and social progress of their States and peoples, and

Desiring to intensify their relations through technical co-operation in a spirit of partnership,

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1. (1) The Contracting Parties shall co-operate with a view to furthering the economic and social development of their peoples.

(2) The present Agreement embodies the basic conditions for technical co-operation between the Contracting Parties. The Contracting Parties may conclude supplementary arrangements regarding individual projects of technical co-operation (hereinafter referred to as "project arrangements"). Each Contracting Party shall be responsible for projects of technical co-operation in its own country. Project arrangements shall define a joint project concept, specifying in particular the project objective, the contributions to be made by the Contracting Parties, the functions and organizational positions of the participants, and the time schedule.

Article 2. (1) Project arrangements may provide for assistance by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany in the following:

- (a) Training, advisory and research centres as well as other facilities in the Republic of Zambia;
- (b) Preparation of plans, studies and reports;
- (c) Other areas of co-operation agreed by the Contracting Parties.

(2) Such assistance may:

- (a) Include the secondment of experts such as instructors, advisers, consultants, specialists, scientific and technical personnel, project assistants and of auxiliary personnel; all personnel seconded on behalf of the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany will hereinafter be referred to as "seconded experts";
- (b) Include the supply of material and equipment (hereinafter referred to as "material");

¹ Came into force on 14 April 1982, the date on which the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany notified the Government of the Republic of Zambia of the completion of the national requirements, in accordance with article 8 (1).

(c) Include the basic or further training of Zambian technical and managerial personnel as well as scientists in Zambia, the Federal Republic of Germany or other countries; or

(d) Take some other appropriate form.

(3) The Government of the Federal Republic of Germany shall, unless otherwise provided in the project arrangements, make at its expense the following contributions to assisted projects:

(a) Remuneration of the seconded experts;

(b) Accommodation for the seconded experts and their families, insofar as such costs are not met by the experts themselves;

(c) Official travel by the seconded experts within and outside the Republic of Zambia;

(d) Procurement of the material referred to in paragraph 2 (b) above;

(e) Transport and insurance to the project site for the material referred to in paragraph 2 (b) above; this shall not include payment of the charges and storage fees referred to in Article 3 (b) of the present Agreement;

(f) Basic or further training of Zambian technical and managerial personnel as well as scientists, in accordance with the applicable German guidelines.

(4) Unless otherwise provided in the project arrangements, the material supplied for the projects on behalf of the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany shall become the property of the Republic of Zambia on arrival in Zambia; the material shall be at the unrestricted disposal of the assisted projects and the seconded experts for the fulfilment of their tasks.

(5) The Government of the Federal Republic of Germany shall notify the Government of the Republic of Zambia of the co-operating agencies, organizations or authorities it will charge with the implementation of its assistance for the respective project. The co-operating agencies, organizations or authorities so charged will hereinafter be referred to as "the implementing agency".

Article 3. The Government of the Republic of Zambia shall make the following contributions:

It shall:

(a) Provide at its expense for the projects in Zambia the land and buildings required, including equipment and furnishings for the buildings, insofar as such equipment and furnishings are not supplied by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany at its expense;

(b) Exempt the material supplied for the projects on behalf of the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany from licences, harbour dues, import and export duties and other public charges, as well as storage fees, and ensure that the material is cleared by customs without delay. The aforementioned exemptions shall, at the request of the implementing agency, also apply to material procured in Zambia;

(c) Meet the operation and maintenance costs of the project, unless otherwise provided in the project arrangements;

- (d) Make available at its expense the Zambian experts and the auxiliary personnel required; the project arrangements should include a time schedule for their assignment;
- (e) Ensure that the functions of the seconded experts are taken over as soon as possible by Zambian experts. Where the latter are to receive basic or further training in the Republic of Zambia, the Federal Republic of Germany or other countries pursuant to the present Agreement, it shall in good time nominate, in collaboration with the mission of the Federal Republic of Germany in Zambia or with experts designated by the mission, sufficient candidates for such training. It shall only nominate such candidates as have given an undertaking to work on the respective project for at least five years after completing their training. It shall ensure that these Zambian experts receive appropriate remuneration;
- (f) Recognize, in accordance with their respective standard, examinations passed by Zambian nationals having received training pursuant to the present Agreement. It shall afford the persons concerned such opportunities with regard to careers, appointments and advancement as are commensurate with their training under this Agreement;
- (g) Afford the seconded experts any assistance they may require in carrying out the tasks assigned to them and make available all necessary records and documents;
- (h) Ensure the provision of the contributions required to implement the projects, insofar as these are not provided by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany pursuant to the project arrangements;
- (i) Ensure that all Zambian agencies concerned with the implementation of the present Agreement and the project arrangements are fully informed of their contents in good time.

Article 4. (1) The Government of the Federal Republic of Germany shall ensure that the seconded experts are pledged:

- (a) To do their best, within the framework of the arrangements concluded on their work, to help achieve the purposes set forth in Article 55 of the Charter of the United Nations;
- (b) Not to interfere in the internal affairs of the Republic of Zambia;
- (c) To respect the laws and customs of the Republic of Zambia;
- (d) Not to engage in any gainful occupation other than that to which they have been assigned;
- (e) To co-operate in a spirit of mutual confidence with the official agencies in the Republic of Zambia.

(2) The Government of the Federal Republic of Germany shall ensure that, before an expert is seconded, the consent of the Government of the Republic of Zambia is obtained. The implementing agency shall forward the curriculum vitae of the expert selected by it to the Government of the Republic of Zambia together with a request for consent to his secondment. If no notification to the contrary is received from the Government of the Republic of Zambia within two months, consent shall be assumed to have been granted.

(3) If the Government of the Republic of Zambia wishes a seconded expert to be recalled, it shall in good time contact the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany and give the reasons for its request. Similarly, the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany shall, when a seconded expert is to be recalled by the German side, ensure that the Government of the Republic of Zambia is informed thereof at the earliest possible date.

Article 5. (1) The Government of the Republic of Zambia shall ensure that the seconded experts and members of their families belonging to their household receive protection for their person and their property. It shall in particular:

- (a) Assume liability in place of the seconded experts in respect of any damage caused by them in carrying out a task assigned to them in accordance with the present Agreement; any claim against the experts shall to that extent be precluded; Zambia may not assert any claim for compensation against the seconded experts, irrespective of any legal foundation of such claim, unless they have caused the damage wilfully or through gross negligence;
- (b) Ensure that the persons referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph will not be subject to any sanction in respect of any acts or omissions, including words spoken or written, in connection with the carrying out of a task assigned to them in accordance with the present Agreement, other than, at the option of the Government of the Republic of Zambia, immediate deportation to the Federal Republic of Germany;
- (c) Permit the persons referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph to enter and leave the country unhindered at any time. In case of emergency or serious international crisis the Government of the Republic of Zambia shall make every effort to assist in the repatriation of the persons referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph;
- (d) Issue to the persons referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph documents of identification referring to the special protection and assistance afforded them by the Government of the Republic of Zambia.

(2) The Government of the Republic of Zambia shall:

- (a) Levy no taxes or other public charges on payments made from funds of the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany to seconded experts for services rendered under the present Agreement; the same shall apply to any payments made to firms carrying out assistance activities within the scope of the present Agreement on behalf of the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany;
- (b) Permit the persons referred to in the first sentence of paragraph 1 above to import and export during their stay, duty and tax-free and without providing security, articles intended for their personal use; such articles shall include for each household one motor vehicle, one refrigerator, one deep-freeze, one washing-machine, one cooker, one radio, one television set, one record-player, one tape-recorder and small electrical appliances, as well as for each person one air-conditioner, one heater, one fan and one set of photographic and film equipment; it shall also be permitted to import and export replacements, duty and tax-free and without providing security, for such articles imported as have become unserviceable or been lost;

- (c) Permit the persons referred to in the first sentence of paragraph 1 above in accordance with the applicable Zambian law to import for their personal requirements medicaments, foodstuffs, beverages and other expendable goods;
- (d) Issue to the persons referred to in the first sentence of paragraph 1 above, free of charge and without requiring deposits, as well as without undue delay, any necessary visas and other permits.

Article 6. The present Agreement shall also apply to projects of technical co-operation begun by the Contracting Parties prior to the entry into force of the present Agreement.

Article 7. This Agreement shall also apply to Land Berlin, provided that the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany does not make a contrary declaration to the Government of the Republic of Zambia within three months of the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

Article 8. (1) This Agreement shall enter into force on the date on which the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany notifies the Government of the Republic of Zambia that the national requirements for such entry into force have been fulfilled.

(2) The present Agreement shall be valid for a period of five years. Thereafter, it shall be tacitly extended for successive periods of one year, unless it is denounced in writing by either Contracting Party three months prior to the expiry of any such period.

(3) Any projects of technical co-operation begun prior to the expiry of the present Agreement shall remain subject to its provisions after expiry.

(4) The Agreement of 10 December 1966 regarding Technical Co-operation shall cease to have effect on the date of the entry into force of the present Agreement.
