Dear Mr. Ambassador,

I have the honour to refer to the arrangements for the United Nations Sugar Conference, 1987, which, at the invitation of the International Sugar Council, the United Nations proposes to convene on 10 and 11 September 1987 in London, subject to your Government's concurrence. In this connexion, I would be most grateful if your Government could agree to the following arrangements for the Conference:

After consultation with the International Sugar Organization, I propose that the Conference be held at the premises of the Organization, Haymarket House, 28 Haymarket, London, which shall be deemed to constitute, for the duration of the Conference, the premises of the United Nations in the sense of section 3 of the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations.²

Secondly, I propose that participation in the Conference shall be open to such representatives and observers as, in accordance with United Nations practice, the Secretary-General may designate or invite to attend.

Thirdly, I propose that the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies³ and the Headquarters Agreement between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the International Sugar Organization⁴ shall, as appropriate, be applicable in respect of the Conference.

Finally, I propose that, upon receipt of your confirmation in writing of the above, this exchange of letters shall set out the arrangements between the United Nations and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland regarding the United Nations Sugar Conference, 1987.

¹ Came into force on 28 August 1987 by the exchange of the said letters.

Sir,

I have the honour, with reference to your letter dated 20 August 1987, to state that my Government is content that the United Nations Sugar Conference should be held in London on 10 and 11 September 1987. In this connection, the following arrangements for the Conference are acceptable to my Government:

The Conference will be held at the premises of the International Sugar Organisation, Haymarket House, 28 Haymarket, London, which will be deemed to constitute, for the duration of the Conference, the premises of the United Nations in the sense of Section 3 of the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations.

Secondly, participation in the Conference will be open to such representatives and observers as, in accordance with United Nations practice, the Secretary-General may designate or invite to attend.

Thirdly, the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialised Agencies and the Headquarters Agreement between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the International Sugar Organisation will, as appropriate, be applicable in respect of the Conference.

Finally, I confirm that this exchange of letters sets out the arrangements between the United Nations and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland regarding the United Nations Sugar Conference, 1987.

Accept, Sir, the assurances of my highest consideration.

[Signed]
