EXCHANGE OF NOTES CONSTITUTING AN AGREEMENT¹ BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF POLAND ON THE WAIVER OF VISA REQUIREMENTS

I

EMBASSY OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA

Warsaw, November 24, 1993

Your Excellency,

I have the honour to inform Your Excellency that, with a view to facilitating travel between their respective territories, the Government of the Republic of Korea is prepared to conclude with the Government of the Republic of Poland a visa-waiver agreement in the following terms:

1.

Nationals of each country holding a valid passport may enter the territory of the other country without a visa for their stay not exceeding ninety (90) days, provided that their intended stay is not for the purpose of engaging in any lucrative or paid employment.

¹ Came into force on 24 December 1993, i.e., 30 days after the date of the note in reply, in accordance with the provisions of the said notes.

Nationals of each country who, holding a passport referred to in article 1, intend to stay longer than ninety (90) days in the territory of the other country are required to obtain a visa in advance.

3.

Nationals of each country who, holding a valid diplomatic or official passport, are appointed to its diplomatic or consular mission in the other country, and the members of their family forming part of their household shall be allowed to enter without a visa the territory of the other country and stay there for the period of their official mission.

4.

Nationals of each country proceeding to the territory of the other country shall be subject to the laws and regulations in force of the country of their destination relating to the entry and stay of aliens.

5.

Each Government reserves the right to refuse leave to enter or stay in its territory to any person whom it considers undesirable.

6.

Each Government may provisionally suspend the application of this agreement in whole or in part for reasons of public order, security or health, and such suspension or the lifting of the suspension by one Government shall be notified immediately to the other through diplomatic channels.

7.

The two Governments shall, not later than thirty (30) days before this agreement enters into force, exchange specimens of passports and other travel documents, and they shall also notify each other of any amendments made to the above-mentioned documents, providing the amended specimens at least thirty (30) days before they come into use.

If the above provisions are acceptable to the Government of the Republic of Poland, I have further the honour to propose that the present note and Your Excellency's note in reply to that effect constitute an agreement between the two Governments on this matter, which shall enter into force thirty (30) days after the date of Your Excellency's note in reply and shall thereafter be subject to termination by either Government giving sixty (60) days' notice in writing to the other.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.
