Parties"),

Desirous of developing cooperation between their respective countries in the fields of health and medicine,

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1

The Contracting Parties shall encourage cooperation in the fields of health and medicine, on the basis of equality, reciprocity and mutual benefit. The specific areas of cooperation shall be determined by mutual consent taking into account their respective interests.

Article 2

In particular, the Contracting Parties shall use their best endeavours to facilitate:

- a. exchanges of information in health fields of mutual interest;
- b. exchanges of specialists for the purpose of study and consultations as specified in the of Plans of Cooperation referred to in Article 5 of this Agreement;

¹ Came into force on 18 August 1996 by notification, in accordance with article 6.

- c. direct contacts between institutions and organizations in their respective countries;
- d. exchanges of information on new equipment, pharmaceutical products and technological developments related to medicine and public health;
- e. exchanges of experience in questions of hygiene and preventive services; and
- f. such other forms of cooperation in the fields of medicine and public health as may be mutually agreed.

Article 3

The Contracting Parties shall exchange information on congresses and symposia with international participation dealing with the problems of health and medicine which will take place in their respective countries and, at the request of one Contracting Party, the other Contracting Party will send the respective materials issued on the occasion of such actions.

Article 4

The respective bodies of the Contracting Parties shall exchange lists of medical literature and films on health care as well as any other written, visual or audio-visual informative materials in the field of health knowledge.

Article 5

The Contracting Parties entrust the Ministry of Health of the State of Israel and the Ministry of Health of the Slovak Republic with the implementation of this Agreement.

To implement this Agreement the Ministries will sign Plans of Cooperation in which the areas of cooperation and all the financial conditions as well will be specified.

Article 6

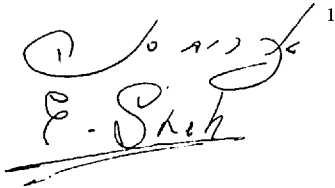

This Agreement shall be approved or ratified in accordance with the internal procedures of the Contracting Parties and will enter into force with the exchange of diplomatic notes on approval or ratification.

Article 7

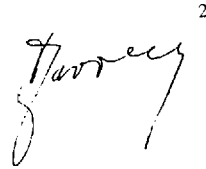

The Agreement will remain in force for an indefinite period of time unless either of the Parties notifies the other in writing through diplomatic channels at least six months prior to the proposed date of expiration about the intention to terminate the Agreement.
